Open Letter Rogatory
28 May 2013

Dear Prime Minister and the British Cabinet,

10 From the Global Isles Court of Record, on behalf of our Plaintiffs, in pursuit of justice and right for all people, which therefore includes all men and women living on the British Isles and in Her Majesty's Commonwealth, we send greeting!

This thesis requires immediate personal attention by those who make claim to represent the people and by the men and women in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

The method of this letter

15 This letter confronts the truth that a century of false money has left all the people of the world without an objective sense of value – obliging most of us into acting like lunatics.

We examine the business of managing idiots and lunatics in the same way as shining a light into a cave of vampire bats. It is time to recognise that this business is unlawful.

20 We show that there are ancient unalterable truths that have been passed down many centuries of time in symbolic language. We also reveal the unwritten constitution of Europe that has overcome danger in subtle form. The history of the past few years shows us that tyrants have had their means removed and that 'austerity' signals the end of tyranny.

This letter, addressed to the Executive of the British Government, is written in the language of the Spiritual Guardians of England, Wales, Scotland ... Europe – Christianity.

25 The vast background that needs to be covered is compressed into this thesis – A Battle for Britain – that invokes God's grace upon us all. The letter is as much for His Holiness The Bishop of Rome and Her Majesty The Queen, as it is for the common man on the street who has seen the substance that once safeguarded his liberty withdrawn.

30 We show the world an alternate path to final settlement of law and money – a path free from bogus credit and unmitigated force. The producers of wealth who bring in the 'profit' that is but a word for God's abundance shall have their coffers of empty credit replaced with the bounty of God.

35 Without trust the world would revert to chaos – there are timeless, objective, 'religious' values that are more important than 'all the gold in the world'. This Court of Record shows in this thesis that the soul of Britain can be trusted with the prosperity of all men and women, without distinction of people and nations. We do believe that God's words shall empower the British Cabinet and Parliament at the 'highest levels' to bring about a final settlement of law and money and the world be blessed with an abundance of life and peace.

40 Enduring wisdom and custom

Aristotle reminds us that changes of the Earth, slow in comparison to the duration our lives, are overlooked and that great catastrophes result in former common knowledge and custom to be forgotten.

45 England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland are Christian countries under God with an unbroken record of the Rule of Law from ancient times despite great calamities.

The Common Law to Roman Catholics and Protestants alike is the King James Bible which gives each of us on this blessed planet an unshakable foundation of spiritual granite upon which to live in a civilisation with an abundance of life and peace.

50 Gospel of Saint John, 10:10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

This Court comes now with the Law of Christ<sup>1</sup> and the living spiritual inheritance of all the children of Our Father in Heaven. Even a little contemplation of this shall protect you from great fear.

Of The Law and the jurisdiction of this Court of Record

55 Our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ Himself proclaimed the Trust Law<sup>2</sup> which is the fount of Constitutional Law and Civil Law by which Christendom is governed, in the Gospel of Saint Luke, chapters 19 and 20. He spoke His authority over the kingdom of God thus:

60 Matthew 21:23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? 21:24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

65 21:25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him? 21:26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

*21:27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

And of His authority over the land thus:

70 *Gospel of Saint Luke 19:30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither. 19:31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

The language, science, law and history that brought us the challenges of our time

75 It is God Almighty, One, who comes as the identity of all things, from our own self identity to the 'material' Higg's Boson and the mighty universe itself.

To say or think the word 'exist', for example, 'Rome exists', is to postulate that the identity under contemplation or discussion appears to be outside (ex) from being/One (ist). Each such identity is the part-less One itself, in a special form. One cannot discuss any thing or idea before first recognising its unity, or one.

80 We salute this impersonal One, who comes as the identity of all ideas and things, as our friends and enemies, as the problems we confront and the solutions to those problems, as the incoming missile and the ray that destroys this missile; it is this Almighty One, who came as our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, who proclaimed:

*Gospel of Saint John 10:30 I and My Father are One

85 May this contemplation of our One Christ, Our Father in Heaven, the Intellectual-Principle of Man, guide us to set down words that shall bring life and peace in abundance for all the Children of Our Lord.

90 May the English language exist as the universal language of One, which as the ocean of Truth, has absorbed the mighty rivers of Latin, Greek, Arabic and the noble languages of India and Europe. May the children of our Lord exchange the good of Truth as the goods of the contemplation of Almighty God and see Him present in every one, for the love of God is the dawn of life and peace.

It is this Almighty God who Pope Francis proclaims loves us and has given Christians the strength and wisdom to overcome evil against all odds.

95 Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

100 He is the true priest who restores Knowledge, of Truth, of the Law of Christ, to all men and women. Each phenotype of Man may required special teaching to balance and guide them to the goal but One excludes no one<sup>3</sup>.

3 Perhaps in some ancient time the Church had to be an exclusive club with special biscuits to gain temporal power over the ancient Roman Caesar. The depths of Truth is now available to all rational souls with or

Matthew 6:5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

105 6:6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

110 Has there been a conspiracy to destroy Truth? Have you heard of people who were burnt for reading the bible? Have you heard of how the English language itself has been simplified to Basic English<sup>4</sup>? Has your priest taught this Law of Christ as the highest pitch of Reason which then is the pure love of Christ that is sought? Have you heard that there is no God and that we live on a random dirt ball in the middle of a relative universe? Have you heard derogatory remarks about medieval theology? A collection of little truths or blind adherence to medieval customs does not substitute for the contemplation of Truth itself as the Law of Christ which encompasses all evidence, including the evolution of the universe and life from One.

115 Such a contemplation over the life of our civilisation has discovered the ever newness of God flashing into our consciousness as the shape of the probabilistic quantum functions that, it is supposed, let you overcome Zeno's paradox of motion in the realm of unlimited numbers.

It is the Law of Christ that destroyed Caesar, for the Roman Emperors were in pursuit of the pyramid of Force, which does not respect life or property.

120 These principles of life, the principles of Trust Law, that are elucidated in the Gospel of Saint Luke, chapters nineteen and twenty.

These chapters show us that the fiduciary duty of the Trustee for the Rule of Law is to ensure that the gold is kept safe, 'wrapped up in a piece of cloth' and not ventured forth into the hands of tyrants who claim to provide you risk free profit.

125 These chapters give us the method to deal with Caesar, the unlimited tyrant, who initiates force first, steals with an ostentatious show of moral superiority, with demonstrably false claims to be working for the public good.

As the Right Honourable Nigel Farage has discovered<sup>5</sup> by travelling to Bulgaria, the Roma gypsies can sum up the problem in the United kingdom:

130 Old Bulgarian Proverb: 'The person who is eating the pie is not crazy. The crazy one is the person offering the pie in the first place.'

The solution to the problem in UK and Europe has already been proposed: "Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God", which Pope Benedict XVI preached at the Lourdes in France in 2008 and again in his Christmas message of 2012.

135 It is false knowledge that there is a fixed pie of wealth and that the poor must steal from the rich in order to survive. It is equally false knowledge that the rich have a right to cast away the poor people and exclude them from the land. It is the plain and certain duty of the highest legal authority to "feed the sheep". The question is, how can this be resolved?

without a Church, guru or guide. A spirit of generosity to all, regardless of allegiance or contribution in kind in return, elicits a reward from the one who lives in all.

With this overview, we can approach history and witness how Christian contemplation has overcome the emergence of a Great Caesar, whenever the world has been threatened with such, including Great Britain. Thus the religious contemplation in this letter is more important than the economics or law.

History of the decline and rise of Catholic Christianity

When the Edict of Worms (Wormser Edikt) was proclaimed against Martin Luther in 1521, this event bore testimony to centuries long neglect<sup>6</sup> of transmitting the Law of Christ to all the children of our Lord.

Mere obedience to priests dead to the Law of Christ, who suppress reason and promote ignorance resulted in the fulfilment of Hosea 4:6 “seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.”

The subsequent verses make crystal clear how a people are destroyed by lack of knowledge – it is instructive to note how today’s ‘civil’ legislatures and people loyal to such are being led down the path of self destruction in pursuing ‘same sex civil marriage’.

Hosea 4:10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

Sex and religion have a difficult history in Europe. Sex was not thought of as sin by the ancients – sex, the graphic depiction included, was a symbol of life – of God in His and Her creative aspect. The naked body of man and woman are the creation of God – nothing to be ashamed of. The nakedness referred to in Genesis is symbolic language for ignorance of the unity of life. The use of the word ‘whoredom’ is the clue – sex results in new life. Without Trust between the man and woman – consent is not just enough – to bring up and provide for the child – in substance and in spirit – this breach of trust with regards to new life, is what is “whoredom”.

The Council of Trent made symbolic constitutional arguments of the historical civil authority left to Saint Peter and the Bishop of Rome by Christ, whilst the reformers made devotional arguments regarding purity and rule by committee. Neither side awake to the Law of Christ and its implication for the illumination of reason or the self governance of Man.

The ignorant confusion of sex and sin must be seen for what it is. Nudes in the Michaelangelo’s masterpiece in the Sistine Chapel were covered up by the ‘Fig leaf Pope’. Ignorance of the principles of life is an advantage in a long duration war for supremacy. Today, the descendants of the Protestants who inspired the sacking of Rome in 1527 are ‘into’ ‘whoredom’. The politicians are now shown to have no understanding of the Law of Christ.

In the years between the Council of Trent and today, the light of Almighty God, the Mind in which we live, cannot be suppressed, it awoke with world altering vigour as the worship of Caesar, worship of the mastery of Force. The Magna Carta wars in Europe and the rise of the new Catholic Christianity are discussed below.

It is this mastery of Force and centuries of conflict that results in a civil peace that arrived at the end of World War II, a world then educated at great cost with the basics of civil law and the ‘rights’ of citizens and respect for life.

All was not well however with the world of men. Nuclear bombs had been dropped on an 180 already surrendered population<sup>7</sup>. Caesar believed that he and his successors were now established, forever secure, in a world dominated by fear.

185 “The atomic bomb has deadened the finest feelings which have sustained mankind for ages. There used to be so-called laws of war which made it tolerable. Now we understand the naked truth. War knows no law except that of might. The atomic bomb brought an empty victory to the Allied armies. It has resulted for the time being in the soul of Japan being destroyed. What has happened to the soul of the destroying nation is yet too early to see. Truth needs to be repeated as long as there are men who do not believe it.”

- Mahatma Gandhi

An era of Mutually Assured Destruction (MAD) followed, where Deep Underground Military Bases (DUMB) were constructed by two ‘super-power’ republics.

190 This was followed by the ‘war on terror’ - war is terror. We live in an age of an irrational fear of pointy objects<sup>8</sup> and pea shooters<sup>9</sup>. The legal idiots who quiver in such fear or enforce it are the terrorists, spreading a culture of fear. All those police officers and ‘law enforcement’ who have been bamboozled into enforcing corporate rules rather than the Common Law take cognisance. If you, dear reader, are a British police officer, read the King James Bible, Magna Carta of 1215 and the Bill of Rights 1688 and learn how life, liberty and the 195 Common Law applies equally to Catholics and Protestants alike.

We know exactly why weapons have been removed and are attempted to be removed from the civilian population and it is argued that they should not have weapons – they might hurt each other over disputes regarding imaginary money.

200 Today’s legal idiots are those who run this farce in the name of ‘government’. Their time is up. This bill is due. All the gold in the world won’t be enough to pay it. Karma. They shall start to earn it.

The Law of Christ pre-exists time

John 8:58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

205 The Law of Christ is revealed by seers. Mankind has known this law since ancient times. The testimony of the contemplation of ancient Jewish<sup>10</sup> seers is recorded in the Kabblah regarding

“We have already lost Germany,” Stettinius said. “If Japan bows out, we will not have a live population on which to test the bomb.”

“But, Mr. Secretary,” said Alger Hiss, “no one can ignore the terrible power of this weapon.” “Nevertheless,” said Stettinius, “our entire postwar program depends on terrifying the world with the atomic bomb.” “To accomplish that goal,” said John Foster Dulles, “you will need a very good tally. I should say a million.”

“Yes,” replied Stettinius, “we are hoping for a million tally in Japan. But if they surrender, we won't have anything.” “Then you have to keep them in the war until the bomb is ready,” said John Foster Dulles. “That is no problem. Unconditional surrender.” “They won't agree to that,” said Stettinius. “They are sworn to protect the Emperor.” “Exactly,” said John Foster Dulles. “Keep Japan in the war another three months, and we can use the bomb on their cities; we will end this war with the naked fear of all the peoples of the world, who will then bow to our will.”

Ain, Ain Soph and Ain Soph Aur, which can be correlated to the ancient Greek One, the Intellectual-Principle and Soul and in the Christian tradition One, Our Father in Heaven and Man.

210 The shattering force of Christ who declared the Law in the face of Caesar's oppression is evidenced by the testimony of known western history as the 'Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire'.

The ancient Vedas, or 'Word of God', faithfully preserved by many millennia of oral tradition, capped by the teachings of the Upanishads<sup>11</sup>, we find the testimony that the sage 215 Yagyavalkya proclaimed his knowledge of the Law to the king<sup>12</sup> and told his son, "bring home those cows". It is with this temerity of Christ and Yagnavalkya that we come now to once again declare the Law of Christ to Caesar and Shylock even as Swami Vivekananda did not so long ago and forever altered the face of the British Empire and the balance of power in Europe.

220 The effect of the Law of Christ as redeclared in recent times

It is hopeless and perfectly useless to attempt to govern mankind with the sword. You will find that the very centres from which such ideas as government by force sprang up are the very first centres to degrade and degenerate and crumble to pieces. Europe, the centre of the manifestation of material energy, will crumble into dust within fifty years if she is not mindful to change her position, to shift her ground and make spirituality the basis of her life.

- Swami Vivekananda, circa 1896 on his return to India after a world tour that included Rome.

Researchers at the Vatican can find the evidence of Swami Vivekananda's influence in the legacy of Pope Leo XVIII and the Papabile Cardinal in the 1903 election, Mariano Rampola del Tindaro. The subsequent history is the compromise choice of Pope Pius X as a result of the 230 veto of Franz Joseph I, Emperor of Austria, Apostolic King of Hungary, etc., followed by World War I in 1914 circa the election of Pope Benedict XV on 3 September 1914 and the inevitable World War II as a result of the devious Paris Peace Treaty of 1919. Another dot for researchers in Austria to connect is a certain void document with the mark of Hades, that is but an empty promise of wealth. This document left the 'apostolic king' blind to the "methods of historical 235 and literary justice<sup>13</sup>" and thereby the Rule of Law. What a price the people of Europe had to pay for their spiritual blindness!

What then is this spiritual blindness? The answer is examined in detail in our Open Letter to Professor Richard Dawkins. There are only three possible schools of philosophy regarding the epistemology and ontology of knowledge, namely there is only matter, there is matter and there is spirit and that there is only spirit or Mind. The intellectual recognition that the 240 last school, that there is only Mind, Christ or One is what lets us see ourselves in our enemies. When rational regard for our neighbours replaces gushing sentimentality<sup>14</sup> and its opposite which is dry cynicism, hatred and consequent tyranny, one can make progress in mind and spirit to life and peace.

245 Professor Richard Dawkins is right in that the Bible is not a book about morality or ‘what ought to be’ – we come to say what it is: it is a book about the Law of Mind unpacked into parables – perfectly opaque to literal minded westerners who have lost the ability to think in symbols and images.

250 The land of spirituality, India, has not failed to send its best men before each World War to warn the West<sup>15</sup>. Tracing the progress of karma and cunning from the Congreve rockets<sup>16</sup> imported to England from India by Lord Wellington to V2 rockets raining from the sky is easy. It is more difficult to see that men of the spirit have been ever present to bear witness to the folly of the worship of dead Force.

255 Swami Vivekananda taught men to be strong and fearless. “The means are the cause: attention to the means, therefore, is the great secret of life”, he said<sup>17</sup>. The Western Caesar has listened and has seized the means – the surest testament to this fact is the crumbling world of finance. The ideal of a rational civilisation based on the Law of Mind is nearer than what self congratulating bankers, impotent military men<sup>18</sup>, pseudo-rational scientists and bickering politicians can possibly believe, for both the knowledge and the means are in the 260 hands of the men and women of Mind (Holy Spirit). Once again we hasten to point out that the religion in this letter engenders trust and final settlement of law and money.

Revelation of the Law

The Law is revealed to seers, even as the tertiary laws of nature are revealed to scientists. The similarity between the scientist and the seer is that both must use intense concentration 265 to penetrate the law that is manifest as our identity, body and the universe around us.

There is the story of Einstein’s wife being shown around an astronomical observatory. Her guide remarked that all the equipment was needed to determine the laws of the universe. Einstein’s wife expressed surprise, why, she wondered aloud, is all this needed when her husband does it on the back of an old envelope. Introspection leads to better Relations of Ideas 270 that describe the ‘glorious’ manifestation that are then confirmed by observation.

Over the last few hundred years, matter had disappeared into blazing energy and electromagnetic radiation has been shown to have a dual wave-particle nature and it has been shown that ‘vacuum energy’ exists and can be extracted. Yet materialism is more 15 Paul Brunton, whom we mention in this letter, counted one such amongst his many teachers. This man, sponsored by an Indian Maharajah, travelled to the West before World War II and met scientists and leaders of the time. Some scientists, like Heisenberg, experienced high states of Mind in their lifetimes.

17 Work and its secret – Swami Vivekananda. Delivered at Los Angeles, California, January 4, 1900
“Our great defect in life is that we are so much drawn to the ideal, the goal is so much more enchanting, so much more alluring, so much bigger in our mental horizon, that we lose sight of the details altogether. “But whenever failure comes, if we analyse it critically, in ninety-nine per cent of cases we shall find that it was because we did not pay attention to the means. Proper attention to the finishing, strengthening, of the means is what we need. With the means all right, the end must come. We forget that it is the cause that produces the effect; the effect cannot come by itself; and unless the causes are exact, proper, and powerful, the effect will not be produced. Once the ideal is chosen and the means determined, we may almost let go the ideal, because we are sure it will be there, when the means are perfected. When the cause is there, there is no more difficulty about the effect, the effect is bound to come. If we take care of the cause, the effect will take care of itself. The realization of the ideal is the effect. The means are the cause: attention to the means, therefore, is the great secret of life”.

275 rampant today than ever. The ignorance or ‘original sin’ is in you. Eve, the personification of our capacity for feeling – for she is present in both man and woman, has led you to the serpent of tempting hedonistic pleasure: “Forget about God<sup>19</sup>, have fun”.

The Lords Spiritual brought the Law to England

280 King Alfred the Great (King of Wessex from AD 849 to AD 899 ) took the Law of Christ as his law. Christ through Saint Peter and the clergy of the Roman Catholic Church was the settlor of this trust, the king of England became the Trustee by voluntary acceptance. It was the monk Bede who wrote the Ecclesiastic history of the English People. Pope Sergius I was credited with endeavouring to secure Venerable Bede as his adviser. This convinced King Alfred the Great to take the Law of Christ as his law. This settlement of the Law of Christ into England has survived many centuries, informed the Common Law and given birth to our era 285 where we may choose to live with an abundance of life and peace.

It is also in England that Paul Brunton ‘PB’ was born in 1898, and passed away in 1981 in Switzerland. PB travelled the world and set down the distilled essence of its wisdom.

290 It is this spiritual inheritance<sup>20</sup>, scorned by academic philosophers and professional churchmen alike, that this Court of Record brings to you. In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ we pray, may a few good men be found and the soul of the west saved from blood stasis<sup>21</sup>.

Experience of the Law of Christ, the Living God

‘In Mind we live and move and have our Being’, is a terse summary of profound Truth – a whole lifetime may be needed to experience this Truth as insight.

295 The worldly church, tasked with administration of human affairs, is a thankless, boring<sup>22</sup> task, as the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby, candidly admitted. “It was staggeringly boring, but it just shows God is bigger than us because I remember being very bored,” he said.

300 Has Almighty God left us on this insignificant dirt ball in a mighty clockwork universe with ‘relative laws’ without any hint that God is pure Mind? Just as with particle physics, just asking the question if it is really true that if you smash atoms together you get little ever more minuscule particles that are smaller and more subtle, cannot be answered without the necessary effort and the guidance of those who have gone before, the necessary effort in contemplation must be made. The ancient short-cut of deep devotion has made manifest 19 God is Mind. To forget about Mind is to fail to investigate the waking evidence that strikes you with every sensation and thought. To investigate in this case means introspection.

Luke 17:20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: 17:21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

20 www.courtofrecord.org.uk/archive/notebooks/index.html has sixteen volumes of PB’s notebooks. There are earlier published work including his travels in Egypt and India. Actual spiritual experience is the opposite of “boring”.

21 Blood stasis or venous stasis (google for images, not for the faint hearted), a medical condition where the blood ceases to circulate, is mirrored in society when gold ceases to circulate. In other words, blood stasis in society is when people stop trading substance for substance. Mahatma Gandhi knew there was a problem with the result of the war – the war and its result is a symptom of a greater disease. This is partly the result of spiritual stinginess. Blood, as we have explained in a previous Open Letter, is the closest Roman conception of prana or life force. There is an obvious symbolic lesson directly from God regarding contemplation. Learn it!

305 Actual success in contemplation that contacts the deeper World-Mind that brings space-time and the phenomena of the senses to our consciousness, is a transformation of our mundane existence. A modern example can be found in Autobiography of a Yogi, by Paramahansa Yogananda. His testament includes a description of his first 'super-conscious' experience, or, waking up from boring life:

310 A testament to Contemplative states of Mind

"Mukunda!" Sri Yukteswar's voice sounded from a distant inner balcony.

I felt as rebellious as my thoughts. "Master always urges me to meditate," I muttered to myself. "He should not disturb me when he knows why I came to his room."

He summoned me again; I remained obstinately silent. The third time his tone held rebuke.

315 "Sir, I am meditating," I shouted protestingly.

"I know how you are meditating," my guru called out, "with your mind distributed like leaves in a storm! Come here to me."

Snubbed and exposed, I made my way sadly to his side.

320 "Poor boy, the mountains couldn't give what you wanted." Master spoke caressively, comfortingly. His calm gaze was unfathomable. "Your heart's desire shall be fulfilled."

Sri Yukteswar seldom indulged in riddles; I was bewildered. He struck gently on my chest above the heart.

My body became immovably rooted; breath was drawn out of my lungs as if by some huge magnet. Soul and mind instantly lost their physical bondage, and streamed out like a fluid piercing light from my every pore. The flesh was as though dead, yet in my intense awareness I knew that never before had I been fully alive. My sense of identity was no longer narrowly confined to a body, but embraced the circumambient atoms. People on distant streets seemed to be moving gently over my own remote periphery. The roots of plants and trees appeared through a dim transparency of the soil; I discerned the inward flow of their sap. ...

330 Suddenly the breath returned to my lungs. With a disappointment almost unbearable, I realized that my infinite immensity was lost. Once more I was limited to the humiliating cage of a body, not easily accommodative to the Spirit. Like a prodigal child, I had run away from my macrocosmic home and imprisoned myself in a narrow microcosm.

My guru was standing motionless before me; I started to drop at his holy feet in gratitude for the experience in cosmic consciousness which I had long passionately sought. He held me upright, and spoke calmly, unpretentiously.

335 "You must not get overdrunk with ecstasy. Much work yet remains for you in the world. Come; let us sweep the balcony floor; then we shall walk by the Ganges." ...

One day, however, I took a problem to Master.

"I want to know, sir when shall I find God?"

340 "You have found Him."

"O no, sir, I don't think so!"

My guru was smiling. "I am sure you aren't expecting a venerable Personage, adorning a throne in some antiseptic corner of the cosmos! I see, however, that you are imagining that the possession of miraculous powers is knowledge of God. One might have the whole universe, and find the Lord elusive still! Spiritual advancement is not measured by one's outward powers, but only by the depth of his bliss in meditation.

345 "Ever-new Joy is God. He is inexhaustible; as you continue your meditations during the years, He will beguile you with an infinite ingenuity. Devotees like yourself who have found the way to God never dream of exchanging Him for any other happiness; He is seductive beyond thought of competition.

350 "How quickly we weary of earthly pleasures! Desire for material things is endless; man is never satisfied completely, and pursues one goal after another. The 'something else' he seeks is the Lord, who alone can grant lasting joy.

355 “Outward longings drive us from the Eden within; they offer false pleasures which only impersonate soul-happiness. The lost paradise is quickly regained through divine meditation. As God is unanticipatory Ever-Newness, we never tire of Him. Can we be surfeited with bliss, delightfully varied throughout eternity?” ... Paul Brunton’s writings give us further insight beyond this expansive, ecstatic<sup>23</sup> glimpse. Ecstatic experience as described above is also a mental experience.

John 10:30 I and My Father are One

360 It is possible to go beyond such ecstasy and become One with the Mind itself, a permanent transcendental transformation that is the mark of a Sage: One awake, Christ, Buddha, Krishna.

365 PB describes the World-Mind this way: “There has been so much friction and clash between the different religions because of this idea: whether God is personal or impersonal—so much persecution, even hatred, so unnecessarily. I say unnecessarily because the difference between the two conceptions is only an apparent one. Mind is the source of all; this is Mind inactive. Mind as World-Mind-in-manifestation is the personal God. Between essence and manifestation the only difference is that essence is hidden and manifestation is known. World-Mind is personal (in the sense of being what the Hindus call “Ishvara”); Mind is totally impersonal. Basically, the two are one.”

370 And he also says, “Behind it all is the Great Silence, broken only by the projection of new worlds and the re-absorption of old ones, the unutterable and unknowable Mystery, unreachable and untouchable by humans. Tiny creature that we are, with the tiny minds we have, THAT is utterly beyond us. But from the Grand Mystery, the active God of which this planet Earth is a projection has in turn projected us. Here, communication in the most attenuated intuitive form is possible, even holy communion may be attained. This is the God, the higher power, to whom people instinctively turn in despair or in aspiration, in faith or in doubt. Sometimes a mere fragment of His work is revealed to a chosen prophet in the Cosmic Vision, an awe-filled experience.”

Does our Church welcome and feature such men of the Holy Spirit?

375 A declaration does not change the law

Neither the Act of Supremacy of King Henry VIII of England or the Declaration of Independence of the United States of America changed the law. The same could be said for the discriminatory/unlawful parts, in particular the Declarations of Reasons<sup>24</sup> in the Declaration of Rights that was read to Prince William of Orange, which is current statute law as the Bill of Rights 1688.

380 The law, which can be confirmed by a reading of the Gospel of Saint Luke, is that Caesar may not take what is not his and that those who practice usury and false law are to be punished. From the Gospel of Saint Luke, King James Bible, chapter 20:

385 20:45 Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples, 20:46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts; 20:47 Which devour widows’ houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

From the Gospel of Saint Luke, New International Version, with interpolation to current terminology in square brackets:

390 20:45 While all the people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples, 20:46 “Beware of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and love to be greeted with respect in the [stock/forex markets] and have the most important seats in [parliament/congress] and the places of honour at banquets. 20: 47 They devour widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy [speeches]. These men will be punished most severely.”

395 It is in England that the Rule of Law has been observed to the best ability of a nation of men. It is in England that the Royal Command is seen for what it is, a Brutum Fulmen – an empty 23 Blissful experience is outside unchanging Reality or One.

24 The fundamental mistake was to give the reasons in terms of - ‘a papist did this or that bad thing’, instead of pointing out that the bad thing, that is the bigotry itself, is what is unacceptable.

threat – a Caesar subordinate to the Rule of Law. It is in England that the republics in France and America were seen for what they were – weapons of war against the treasonous kings of Europe. It is in England that the practice of hanging, drawing and quartering of Catholic 400 Priests came to an end without violent revolution. It is in England that the House of Commons quietly entered the realm of formal, corporate law in 1908, even as Parliament moved in treason to the king. It is in England that the inability of the French and the Americans to see their folly in 1919 was openly discussed and published by Lord Maynard Keynes. It is the 405 contemplation of Lord Maynard Keynes that has brought us this day that we may choose life over death.

Formal corporate law, the law of the dead

Luke 9:60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

The Great London Plague of 1665/1666 devastated the population. It became a problem to know if a property was owned by a living man or woman or not. When someone dies 410 intestate with no living successors, the property is escheat to the King or State. Parliament passed the Cestui Que Vie Act 1666 which declared everyone in the kingdom legally dead and lost beyond the seas. Those still living would get to claim their property by showing up alive!

This ingenious mechanism, a variation on “render unto Caesar”, to determine if you are a living Man is in use today. With the creation of the United States of America, a ‘dead’ king, a 415 legal fiction, a name in business became a new legal framework – the corporate laws of the dead. Such a king, could not be ‘killed’ - he or rather ‘it’ was not alive. Opening the way for Tyranny forever.

Those who swear an oath to the United States constitution prove that they do not understand the first principle of living law. The United States constitution does not bind the 420 American people for they have no part of it. It would be just as ridiculous for a handful of people to get together and declare a ‘United States of the World’ and expect obedience from the rest of mankind.

An agreement between two living women is typically made verbally, “I’ll wash the dishes and you do the laundry, then we shall go out for tea”. What part of that agreement would be 425 difficult to ‘enforce’ or determine if incomplete? From the Gospel of Saint Matthew:

5:33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: 5:34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: 5:35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

430 5:36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

5:37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

“Yea, I washed the dishes.”

The worship of the dead

435 Those who worship the United States constitution and the dead Founding Fathers must explain why, if the constitution was so perfect, did they need amendments? No sooner had the ink dried on the paper that it became obvious that the founders had created a tyrant: if, in contravention to the word of Our Lord Jesus Christ, you, dear reader, had sworn an oath to the legal fiction United States, you could be told to ‘shut up and sit down’. Thus came the 1st 440 Amendment. Soon the 2nd and so on. ... the most successful mind game<sup>25</sup> in the history of man.

When a baby is born the parents give it a name. The parents are the granter of a name, a title that will be used by the child in the future to earn a living. The parents happily fill out a Record of Live Birth which is carefully filed away forever by the government. Some government 445 employee, innocent of the consequences of his act, signs a Birth Certificate and mails it to the parents. They even used to enclose a disclaimer that the Birth Certificate is not to be used for identification purposes. The Birth Certificate, signed and issued by a government employee, has the same name and spelling as the Record of Live Birth, but the difference is in the grantor of the formal, corporate title: The Government or, put simply, Caesar.

450 What is the first thing Caesar wants when the child grows up and wants a 'Drivers licence'? The Birth Certificate. Innocent of the ongoing process, the young 'adult' goes on to get a 'passport', file taxes, incorporate a corporation and function as the Director and so on – all for the legal fiction, 'dead name' in business created by Caesar.

A fundamental Power of a living man or woman is "I am who I say I am". To produce 455 'Government identification', is to prove that one is not conscious of one's power as a living soul in that body and that one is unconscious about the spiritual power that vitalises the language that is being written and spoken.

What is it that a Swiss Banker asks of the earnest offshore corporation holder, before he gets the coveted offshore corporate bank account? It is, of course, the passport. The offshore 460 bank holds fictitious money created by the formal legal fiction corporate government. The question is, can a bank licence granted by a different formal Caesar hold the fiction of another? WHOSE fictitious liability are you holding?

Led by their worship of Mammon, the 'rich' legal idiot or 'infant' – George Soros who 465 'broke the Bank of England' comes to mind – thought he was a God on Earth; where all he has done is remove dead legal fiction money from circulation, keeping price inflation low for the formal corporate Caesar and the common man. Recently George Soros confessed to the media that he has no idea how markets work<sup>26</sup>.

From Magna Carta to the restoration of the Law of Christ

When the life, liberty and property of the The Sovereign, is not secure, no one's property is 470 secure. It is The Sovereign who must protect the weak, the infants, lunatics and idiots.

It is the duty of a free man to remain at liberty, to provide for his family. There is no one else in a free society where people are at liberty to provide for his family.

To be at liberty is to posses one's person, one's body and mind; to own private property, to trade that property for other property, to travel, communicate and trade with others at a 475 distance, to take such steps as is right and prudent to protect one's life, liberty and property.

No nation of free men can forbid the movement of people or trade. It is the heritage and pride of England that the Magna Carta declared the rights of free men and even of 'foreign' traders:

38. No bailiff for the future shall, upon his own unsupported complaint, put anyone to his "law", 480 without credible witnesses brought for this purposes.

39. No freeman shall be taken, imprisoned, disseised, outlawed, banished, or in any way destroyed, nor will We proceed against or prosecute him, except by the lawful judgement of his peers and by the law of the land.

40. To no one will we sell, to no one will we refuse or delay, right or justice.

485 41. All merchants shall have safe and secure exit from England, and entry to England, with the right to tarry there and to move about as well by land as by water, for buying and selling by the ancient and right customs, quit from all evil tolls, except (in time of war) such merchants as are of the land at war with us. And if such are found in our land at the beginning of the war, they shall be detained, without injury to their bodies or goods, until information be received by us, or by our chief justiciar, how the merchants of our land found in the land at war with us are treated; and if our men are safe there, the others shall be safe in our land.

Even with an eight century distance in time, 2015 being the 800th anniversary, these words are as alive as ever, a fresh breath drawn in a kingdom of Law.

From article 61 regarding a transgression by the king:

495 ... And if we shall not have corrected the transgression (or, in the event of our being out of the realm, if our justiciar shall not have corrected it) within forty days, reckoning from the time it has been intimated to us (or to our justiciar, if we should be out of the realm), the four barons aforesaid shall refer that matter to the rest of the five and twenty barons, and those five and twenty barons shall, together with the community of the whole realm, distrain and distress us in all possible ways, 500 namely, by seizing our castles, lands, possessions, and in any other way they can, until redress has been obtained as they deem fit, saving harmless our own person, and the persons of our queen and children; and when redress has been obtained, they shall resume their old relations towards us. ...

These words describe the process of a lawful war by the barons of the realm with the king himself. The king is not above the Rule of Law. Where has this been observed in the last few 505 hundred years? The answer is Europe. The kings of Europe are to the Bishop of Rome as the Barons of England are to the Queen of England. From the Council of Trent to Vatican II can be seen a long range war. The war is over, it is time to settle the peace so that all may live in abundance of life.

We have heard the comment, “how many divisions does the Pope have?” ... leading to the 510 general attitude that the Bishop of Rome is unimportant, a mere religious figurehead, with religion being seen as irrelevant and unimportant – witness the recent debate at the Cambridge Union Society. In 1870 Garibaldi led the forces of King Victor Emmanuel II of Italy and took Rome and the Papal States from the Pope by force. The breach of the walls of Porta Pia are the evidence that it was not voluntary. The Pope’s life was spared. The keys to Rome 515 were stolen. A monument to the Italian State was built, across from the Vatican, shrieking defiance. Across the quadrangle is the stone monument of Mussolini. Visitors can see the cannonball shot by the troops of Napoleon III preserved on the marble steps. In the Sistine Chapel, one can view the nudes covered up by the ‘Fig Leaf Pope’. The Italian State and the rest of Europe is in Financial Crisis. In stone, cannonball and art is the unmistakable symbolic 520 message, with a currency crisis and a spectacular resignation to draw our attention.

The message is clear – as the people are being distrained and distressed. The Allies regarding the Rule of Law – the Law of Christ, friends and protectors of the people, are drawing attention to the fact that the people are to be set free, that Caesar is a formal ghost, that the frontiers of impotent Westphalian States are crumbling before our eyes ... and there is nothing Caesar 525 and Shylock can do about it. The expensive UN/US/EU/IMF/ESF/TLA bureaucrats, elected and unelected political actors, lunatics seeking or controlling fiefdoms, child molesters and ‘bankers’ shall learn to create wealth anew. Karma is playing, ‘tag, you’re it’. May Mother Mary have mercy on your souls! May the Divine Mother transform these fallen Dark Lords into men and women of goodwill!

530 The Western world is governed by a handful of Shylocks. All those things that you hear about — constitutional government, freedom, liberty, and parliaments — are but jokes.

- Swami Vivekananda

A little over a century later, Caesar and Shylock are insane, sterile male ghosts.

535 *The quality of mercy is not strain'd;
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath. It is twice blest:
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes.
'Tis mightiest in the mightiest; it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown;
540 His sceptre shows the force of temporal power,
The attribute to awe and majesty,
Wherein doth sit the dread and fear of kings;
But mercy is above this sceptred sway,
It is enthroned in the hearts of kings,
545 It is an attribute to God himself;
And earthly power doth then show likest God's
When mercy seasons justice.*

- Shakespeare

Symbolic Language of Savants of Mind

550 A symbol is a whole cluster of meanings, a matrix of possible tendencies that simultaneously defies discursive thinking and provides an inexhaustible fount of discursive wisdom for it is the One itself in special form, the visible presence of a reason-principle.

For example, a mathematical singularity is a symbol, pointing at the infinite non-dual nature of One. Mathematicians will tell you that one divided by zero is undefined and move 555 on. Yet they miss a most important symbol that can in contemplation provide a glimpse into the nature of Reality. If you approach zero in the limit as the divisor of one, the result 'tends to infinity'. If, however, you take division as taking out a slice of the pie, and take out no slice at all, you are left with one! Theoretical advances, as a result of contemplative introspection, in man's ability to comprehend infinities made enormous advance in Cantor's sets, symbolic 560 language in the world of mathematics. In theoretical physics, the symbolic language of Feynman diagrams provides the most mathematically perfect models of reality at the quantum level. Feynman was the true American artist, who, echoing Heisenberg's dying words, said, "Physics is not the most important thing, love is".

565 The most sophisticated scientists and mathematicians model the world with ever more perfect theories, approach what are 'Platonic solids' or perfect mathematical ideas that almost exactly describe phenomena, until the next insight places the prior into the category of a utopia. ... For example, Euclidean geometry is not found in nature as space-time is curved. This fact itself is a symbol, pointing at the nature of Reality, the 'glory' of God. A 'glory' is a 'wormhole' into Reality.

570 The nature of Reality is that of Mind. All phenomena in manifestation are symbols, a being that exists, an identity that appears to be separate from the non-dual Real or One. Every identity is 'looking into One' to determine its self-identity amidst everything that it is not, the universe in which it has appeared, one in a special form, a hologram of the Real. The world of botany becomes a magical world where you can see a galaxy with a black hole at the centre

575 manifest as the flower 'Queen Ann's Lace'.

The Hubble constant which shows that objects in the universe twice as far away are moving away from us at twice the speed, subject to the theory of relativity. This can be illustrated by a two dimensional expanding surface, a balloon. A tiny dot or circle, a two dimensional creature on the surface of the expanding balloon, can observe all others moving 580 away from it. The universe is expanding, it thinks, away from me: 'I am the centre of the universe'. However for a creature like ourselves in the three dimensional world, we can observe that all the dots on the surface of the balloon are expanding away from the centre of the spherical balloon, just as light rays expand away from the centre of the sun. This then, is a model of the expanding universe. Is it found manifest in the world of botany? Open an oak 585 gall, and there you have it. A hologram of the universe.

Early languages were symbolic and speaking in images and metaphor was normal. The transition to sound phonemes as symbols having meaning was a natural progression, followed by the written symbols for letters that you are reading. The development of the mind in Man was now on a different track, symbols could adopt mathematical meaning, 590 which ultimately led us to  $E = mc^2$ .

Marshall McLuhan, a Canadian Anglican who fought in WWII turned Catholic later in life, a symbol, it seems, of a life worth investigating. His published insights into the nature of symbolic speech are unparalleled. Perhaps his contribution will be seen as one of the most important of the century past:

595 The American mind is not even close to being amenable to the ideogram principle as yet. The reason is simply this. America is 100% 18th Century. The 18th century had chucked out the principle of metaphor and analogy — the basic fact that as A is to B so is C to D. AB:CD. It can see AB relations. But relations in four terms are still verboten. This amounts to deep occultation of nearly all human thought for the U.S.A.

600 I am trying to devise a way of stating this difficulty as it exists. Until stated and publicly recognised for what it is, poetry and the arts can't exist in America. Mere exposure to the arts does nothing for a mentality which is incorrigibly dialectical. The vital tensions and nutritive action of ideogram remain inaccessible to this state of mind.

Old Europe and England are always speaking in symbols or ideograms – the stripes on the 605 tie in bend sinister have a message. ... The major politicians in London have adopted solid colours. The flags on display, the colour of someone's winter coat at a certain time, the list goes on. Visiting dignitaries from other parts of the world think they are in Disneyland.

The choice of one's defining symbol is important – not just in proclaiming one's identity, but to attract the attention of one. If we may be so bold as to dare, for, 'he who dares wins', 610 we have a few discursive words about what we see in a Coat of Arms.

Everyone knows that Her Majesty The Queen is the epitome of the virtue of silence. Never saying a political word, Her Majesty's quiet presence has been the ground on which the history of the last sixty years have passed.

On Her Majesty's Coat of Arms is the unicorn, a mythical, powerful, capricious creature 615 that is charmed by the innocent maiden. Her Majesty has charmed the unchained unicorn for the past sixty years – in quiet, prayerful contemplation. There are many stories in religious literature of the protective power of quiet contemplation ... Narasimha and Prahlada<sup>27</sup> from the Yoga Vasistha of Indian literature comes to mind, as does Saint Melangell<sup>28</sup> of Wales.

620 This letter, the essence of the mythical unicorn, with the horn of One, has thundered across your desk, tat tat tat tat, I am that<sup>29</sup> I am, tat tvam asi ... Her Majesty The Queen, comfortably assumed to be a figurehead 'zero' has no need to say a word; One Christ, Our Father in Heaven, has sent this Court of Record to Her Majesty The Queen. This letter inspires single minded attention. Whoever you are, dear reader, you cannot ignore it. This is the Power of the unicorn.

625 As for the Coat of Arms of the Bishop of Rome, with Saint Peter's crossed keys<sup>30</sup> of gold and silver, especially as we have a Pope Emeritus, the Catholic News Agency has provided a few words:

The cardinal who designed Pope Benedict XVI's coat of arms says he needs a new one now that he is no longer the pontiff.

630 "The problem now is whether the Pope Emeritus can keep that same coat of arms or not," said Cardinal Andrea Cordero Lanza di Montezemolo.

"And as a person who has always dedicated himself to this, I say 'no,'" he told CNA during a May 2 interview.

635 He believes that the "coat of arms needs to be transformed to show that he is a Pope Emeritus," he stated. ...

He has drawn up a new coat of arms, which he believes could be used now by the former pontiff.

He moved the big keys of Saint Peter from the back of the coat of arms to the top part of the shield and made them much smaller.

"That shows that he had a historic possession but not a current jurisdiction," said the cardinal.

640 He also included the motto that Benedict used as a cardinal at the bottom, a feature that a papal coat of an arranged marriage and went to Wales to live her life in quiet devotion to God. She took refuge in the Tanat Valley in Powys in north-central Wales, where she lived a peaceful solitary life as a hermit for fifteen years, until the day in AD604 that Ysgythrog, the prince of Powrys, went hunting with his hounds in a place called Pennant. A frightened hare found Melangell and took refuge under her cloak. When the prince and the hounds caught up, the hare was said to be boldly looking out from under the hem of the robe of a beautiful maiden; the maiden, Melangell, was in divine meditation. The hounds kept their distance and refused to pursue the hare, despite having been urged on by the huntsmen. Impressed by Melangell's devotion and piety, Prince Ysgythrog granted her the land in the valley as her sanctuary; there she founded a community of women and served as their abbess for 37 years.

29 The sound of that – like a hand clapping – is the sound symbol of that 'eureka' moment when you 'get to know the Truth' of something. The experience of the kingdom of Heaven in contemplation that is within you literally comes like a thunderclap, like that!

"Students draw back affrighted at the concept of a great void which leaves them nothing, human or divine, to which they may cling. How much the more will they draw back, not from a mere concept, but from an actual experience through which they must personally pass! Yet this is an event, albeit not the final one on the ultimate ultramystic path, which they can neither avoid nor evade. It is a trial which must be endured, although to the student who has resigned himself to acceptance of the truth whatever face it bears—who has consequently comprehended already the intellectual emptiness of both Matter and Personality—this experience will not assume the form of a trial but rather of an adventure. After such a rare realization, he will emerge a different man. Henceforth he will know that nothing that has shape, nobody who bears a form, no voice save that which is soundless can ever help him again. He will know that his whole trust, his whole hope, and his whole heart are now and forevermore to be surrendered unconditionally to this Void which mysteriously will no longer be a Void for him. For it is God."

30 Gospel of Saint Matthew 16:15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? 16:16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

16:17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

16:18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

16:19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

16:20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

"But this is only a proposal, it isn't official," Cardinal Lanza di Montezemolo qualified.

"I allowed myself to send him a note with suggestions because the elements of jurisdiction in effect need to be removed," he stated.

645 The cardinal told how Benedict replied to him with a note stating that he felt "very unsure" and that he "does not dare."

650 The former Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Rowan Lord Williams of Oystermouth, to whom we wrote an Open Letter<sup>31</sup>, resigned recently. He said in an interview<sup>32</sup> regarding the choice of his successor, "I think that it is a job of immense demands and I would hope that my successor has the constitution of an ox and the skin of a rhinoceros, really. ..."

655 England was witness to the recent enthronement of the new Lord Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby. During the enthronement ceremony, witnessed by Prince Charles, he was intercepted by a young Sri Lankan girl who questioned him about who he was. He said he came to the job in "weakness, fear and much trembling". During the ceremony on the 21st March 2013, at 15:15 hours, the Archbishop of York Dr John Sentamu wearing an impressive vestment adorned with symbols, asked the new Archbishop to make his declaration of assent and loyalty.

660 In the days before Christ, the governance of the world was that of Caesar – the symbol of this government of the Senate and the People of Rome is the Eagle. When the President of the United States is seen in public, the Great Seal of State with the S.P.Q.R. Eagle is never far away. When German Constitutional Court met regarding the fate of the Euro, what was the huge symbol on the wall? The Eagle<sup>33</sup>. What was the colour of the legal gowns and caps? Red.

665 With the collapse of Caesar by the Law of Christ, all lawful governance is the governance of the Church. The very word 'public' is a symbol or word that represents the lay members of the Church.

'Public notice': All those who read these words take cognisance: The symbol of this court is the Lighthouse besides the Stormy Sea and the Rock of Reality. The jurisdiction is of Our Sovereign Lady of the Common Law, the Immaculate Virgin Mary, the 'Mother of God', Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, One with Our Father in Heaven.

670 The symbol of the Global Settlement Foundation is Our Sovereign Lady, cradling the Earth in Her arms, the Mother of life in abundance. The Earth itself, One, non-dual.

675 In the name of Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, we rebuke the Stormy Sea of Admiralty! In the name of Our Bountiful Mother we pray: May the Bark of Peter cast its net in the deep Mind and return with the bounty of the fish of Good Substance to feed the flock of Our Lord and Master, all men and women without distinction of people and nations!

The Consolidated Fund

A legal idiot is someone with whom you cannot have a rational conversation at any time. A lunatic is rational on some days of the month – lunatic comes from the root luna, the moon.

By 1835 the laws regarding idiots, lunatics, fem coverts and infants were 'consolidated'.<sup>34</sup> It 33 Luke 17:37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

34 See The Law-dictionary, Explaining the Rise, Progress and Present State of British Law ... 1835 by Sir Thomas Edlyne Tomlins. See entry regarding Committee for the management of the estate of Idiots and Lunatics.

680 is the duty of the king to take care of those who cannot take care of themselves. Such people are called 'wards of the State'.<sup>35</sup> By the mid 1800s, there had even been a king of England who was treated as a lunatic. How could that have happened and what does this mean?

In a kingdom, it is the duty of a man or woman to know the law. You may have heard that 'ignorance of the law is not an excuse'. For example, a woman who had a child out of wedlock and was therefore unable to support the child was considered insane to have consented to sex without a marriage 'contract'. In the 'western civilisation' ideal of free society, marriage is seen as a Trust that is enforceable by the king.

Liberty is a crucial legal concept. Without the ability to own and trade property, goods, contracts and services, a man or woman would not be free, unless he was a legal idiot, in which case the idiot could say whatever he wanted because a legal idiot's estate would be managed by a 'Committee for the Management of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics'.

In 1908 the House of Commons was incorporated, making it a formal entity. The 1908 People's Budget declared a 'War on Poverty'. Poverty cannot be alleviated by war – such talk that includes violence itself is symbolic and is manifest today as the 'war on terror'.

695 In 1911 the Parliament Act declared Parliament sovereign, a year after the Black Ascot, when England lost a king in the Know. It was hardly a surprise when the treasonous legal idiots in the House of Commons in 1911 thought they are Sovereign, which they still do today. Since that fateful day the Consolidated Fund is looking after the entire population of the 'United kingdom' legally known as UK PLC. In Scotland, the Right Honourable First Minister Alex Salmond is seeking 'independence' or, in other words 'sovereignty'. It is the legal duty of The Sovereign to steward the resources of the land to ensure that the 'sheep are fed'.

Perhaps the legal eagles in Scotland should investigate the sub-surface rights of Her Majesty The Queen to the mineral resources in and around Scotland. It would be rather presumptuous for a formal corporate body with no substantial money in circulation to assume 'sovereignty' or that such 'sovereignty' could be maintained when Europe and the rest of the world continue with a 'commercial' war under the Uniform Commercial Code – wait is it that the First Minister is a legal idiot being 'used' by powers unseen? - check his tie.

Political parties who are feeding on the discontent of the people with 'austerity' should contemplate this: By what authority, Quo Warranto, do politicians have a right to enforce a 'passport' based international parole system for lunatics and idiots? By what authority do they think they can 'force' 'banks' to 'lend' 'imaginary money' - are they Abraham Lincoln?

Looking up to the United States as so many 'republicans' do, one can see blazoned in the history of the last century, the statute books<sup>36</sup> and in their printed currency that their politicians have no such authority.

715 Only idiots and lunatics think that war can alleviate poverty – mirrored today by the legally idiotic 'war on terror' - witness Prime Minister Tony Blair and Prime Minister Gordon Brown who sold UK PLC's gold – think you that some of them may be merely lunatics?

35 Anyone who has a 'bank account' or hires a 'lawyer', or 'accountant' is a 'ward of the state'. The first one shows you choose to use Caesar's 'commercial = fraud based' enrichment and are bankrupt, the second shows that you cannot write or speak for yourself and the third that you cannot count for yourself. What do modern accountants claim to count? The lawyer is hired because he can 'commune with the dead' - the formal corporate government.

36 In the land known as America, the United States corporation statutes say clearly, oath of office is loss of American Nationality. All oaths of office come under 22 CFR, Foreign Relations, Sections §§92.12 - 92.30, and all who hold public office come under Title 8 USC, Section §1481 "Loss of nationality by native-born or naturalized citizen; voluntary action; burden of proof; presumptions."

720 The UK Parliament in 1911 were just eagerly emulating their American cousins, who, in 1776, declared themselves 'independent', who by 1812 had lost the 'Second War of Independence' in a 'status quo ante bellum peace'; whose 'Congress' had adjourned sine die circa 1861 after a Civil War in which, like idiots, they had printed up imaginary money and slaughtered their southern brothers<sup>37</sup>. They were formally reincorporated as a corporate 'United States' in 1871, a year after the 'Roman Question' as a corporation with unlimited liability – see Amendment XVI, section 4: "The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, 725 including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned."

730 The luxurious idiocy of Garibaldi, King Victor Emmanuel II and Napoleon III of France! They had more guns than the Pope did, so they proceeded firmly established in the primitive idiotic belief, 'might is right!'. Don't forget Emperor Franz Joseph I of Austria who fancied himself 'apostolic king'. Together with the Central Powers he built a navy to rival the British. The 100 year anniversary of 1914, the year Europe went completely mad, is 2014.

The following is invaluable in examining the nature of Law – especially the status of legal idiots - in Roman Civil Law the caregiver or guardian of a spendthrift (prodigus) or of a person of unsound mind (furiosus).

735 The ought-to-be moralists have to confront the what-is-so nature of the world-idea, held in objective manifestation by the World-Mind as the 'matter and space time' of the materialists.

Let us take a quick look at a few important concepts succinctly stated by David Hume:

740 The vulgar define justice as a constant and perpetual will of giving every one his due. Property is not the quality of the object, but it is the relation of the object with a rational mind. Rights, obligations and property do not admit of gradation, they are all or nothing. Justice and injustice are not susceptible of degree, therefore they are not naturally virtuous or vicious. Mind is most often determined by present motives, not by general rules.
- David Hume (1711 - 1776)

He stated the normative is-ought<sup>38</sup> problem. In a Treatise of Human Nature, he wrote:

745 "In every system of morality, which I have hitherto met with, I have always remarked, that the author proceeds for some time in the ordinary ways of reasoning, and establishes the being of a God, or makes observations concerning human affairs; when all of a sudden I am surprised to find, that instead of the usual copulations of propositions, is, and is not, I meet with no proposition that is not connected with an ought, or an ought not. This change is imperceptible; but is however, of the last consequence. For as this ought, or ought not, expresses some new relation or affirmation, 'tis necessary that it should be observed and explained; and at the same time that a reason should be given; for what seems altogether inconceivable, how this new relation can be a deduction from others, which are entirely different from it. But as authors do not commonly use this precaution, I shall presume to recommend it to the readers; and am persuaded, that this small attention would subvert all the vulgar systems of morality, and let us see, that the distinction of vice and virtue is not founded merely on the relations of objects, nor is perceived by reason." 755

David Hume also wrote, in An Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding, regarding the objects of human reason:

All the objects of human reason or enquiry may naturally be divided into two kinds, to wit, Relations of Ideas, and Matters of fact. Of the first kind are the sciences of Geometry, Algebra, and Arithmetic ... [which are]

37 See 'Secret Access The Vatican 2011', where Pope Benedict XVI is so kind as to show the original letters from President Abraham Lincoln and his 'confederate' counterpart in the American Civil War. The American Civil war was mostly about the temporal power of Protestant vs Catholics, not the much trumpeted anti-slavery propaganda – the Civil War left all 'United States Citizens' bond slaves to 'The Sovereign' - with their freedom 'to do whatever they want in a Republic' intact. 760 discoverable by the mere operation of thought ... Matters of fact, which are the second object of human reason, are not ascertained in the same manner; nor is our evidence of their truth, however great, of a like nature with the foregoing.”

This statement, referred to as Hume’s fork, and the severing of the is from the ought-to-be, is referred to as Hume’s Guillotine. Until as recently as the 1960s, David Hume was on the list of authors banned by the Vatican, the Index Librorum Prohibitorum. The Index was abolished on 765 June 14, 1966 by Pope Paul VI. Indeed, it is ironic that his writings clarify the Trust Law and property rights that are in the Gospel of Saint Luke in the New Testament as well as the ontology and epistemology of Genesis<sup>39</sup> in the Old Testament.

Only an idiot would argue with the principle that when the liberty and property of The Sovereign is not secure, no one’s property is secure. Just try running any business that sells 770 goods – is not the proprietor entirely within his rights to punish pilferers and thieves? Is it not true that if the gold of the kingdom is lost, the kingdom is lost? Is it not that the good must remain strong and protect the weak? Is it not that ‘Children of Our Lord’, legal infants, must be protected from predators who steal by Caesar’s ‘might is right’ and colour of law fraud? 775 How can the weak expect to control the strong by the ballot box or by Caesar’s courts?

How can you protect the security of a computer system if the ‘root’ account password is handed out to ‘everybody’ ... or to a committee?

A 100 years after Jekyll Island, even some shareholders and board members of the Federal Reserve, the Committee for the Management of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics in the 780 century past ... may not know how it started and why they are where they are.

Luke 23:34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

Destroying the written constitution in an attempt to prove it irrelevant, as has transpired with the recent debates on the Succession to the Crown Act, just proves this thesis. The 785 pattern seems to be that important debates are preceded by one on female genital mutilation.

Concomitantly, there is high drama in news media and politics regarding ‘equal rights to gay sex’ that resulted, despite the warning<sup>40</sup> by Archbishop Nichols, in the downgrading<sup>41</sup> of UK credit rating, ‘employee shareholder’ reform, stock markets operated by the ‘Cult of Money<sup>42</sup>’ at an ‘all time high’, cheer-leading<sup>43</sup> the valiant bankers of London by the Mayor of 790 London, Boris Johnson, Mayor Michael Bloomberg of New York who banned pain killers<sup>44</sup> and sugary drinks in his compassion for the poor, a crisis in Cyprus that demonstrates<sup>45</sup> banking worldwide is bust, rumours of currency revaluation of the Iraqi Dinar<sup>46</sup> that will save the world, White Hats and Chinese Dragons in a tussle – if you know where to look, ‘free’ ‘health care’<sup>47</sup>, surgeons who cut off healthy body parts just in case<sup>48</sup>, high taxation coupled with ‘I’ll

830 The origin of the business of managing idiots and lunatics

In 1532, King Henry VIII, with his Act of Supremacy, launched the madness of our era. If the Pope could determine right from wrong, so could he, he averred. He looted and destroyed the monasteries, took what was not his and began a 'reign of terror' that has repercussions that have lasted to this day.

835     *The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouts of a ruler of fools.
Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner destroys much good.*
- Ecclesiastes 9:17-18

840     Nothing happens outside the World-Idea – even ‘Satan’ is not apart from it. Satan is ignorance personified, vindictive, arrogant, greedy, lustful, sadistic ... yet the World-Idea, the product of a superior World-Mind, is the perfection of wisdom in motion. There is no contradiction in seeing the World Mind as the Blind Watchmaker, granting us our freedom and liberty in minute randomness and uncertainty – the ever newness of the ever new and 845     ever lasting covenant, the Blind Watchmaker letting its creatures evolve of their ‘free will’ as they play repeated games of prisoner’s dilemma.

850     The challenge from King Henry VIII to the Pope did not go unheard. Ever subtler observation of the laws of nature were used by both sides – until the fog of war amidst the battle of memes<sup>55</sup> has become man made maya<sup>56</sup> that creates the formal world you live in today, moment by moment, one imaginary debt payment at a time, with an entire cast of enticing figures flickering across our screen.

855     *World War III is a guerilla information war with no division between military and civilian participation. ... Since

860     Queen Elizabeth I diluted the coin of Ireland to diffuse an insurrection, which resulted in the Mixed Money Case of 1604, Oliver Cromwell (1599 – 1658) attempted a republic, but this quickly was seen (as compared to America, where they are at it, many decades after their money turned funny<sup>58</sup>) as not preserving liberty. A king is seen as essential<sup>59</sup> to preserving the liberty of the people.

The ‘Glorious Revolution of 1688’ and the decades before and after are crucial to comprehending how this business of the management of idiots and lunatics came about.
Until 1688, England had had no ‘Prime Ministers’.

865     Before 1688, the old English constitution is that the temporal Lords, together with the king, overwhelmingly controlled the balance of Force in their favour.

In the Gunpowder Plot of 1605, Guy Fawkes, attempted to blow up parliament and was caught. A Jesuit priest, Henry Garnet had been caught with the manuscript ‘Equivocation’, which taught how to protect the lives of refugees from Caesar. Both were tried, then hanged, 56 Maya is the Sanskrit word for illusion of space-time and a World, created by God Almighty for His creatures.

58 Thomas Hobbes, Leviathan or The Matter, Forme and Power of a Common Wealth Ecclesiasticall and Civil, published in 1651, regarding a ‘democracy/republic’: “... the public prosperity confers not so much to the private fortune of one that is corrupt, or ambitious, as doth many times a perfidious advice, a treacherous action, or a civil war.”

59 Just as one’s body is the ‘land of one’s soul’, it was seen that having a living king or queen of the land preserved liberty. The conception that when the liberty and property of The Sovereign is not secure, no one’s property is secure, became a touchstone of Common Law and is seen to be in conformity with the King James Bible. Those who could see this could also see that the Bishop of Rome was the king of kings. As above, so below: A nested set of trusts that ensure stewardship of the land. A Christian Republic is an oxymoron.

870 drawn and quartered. No Christian mercy. There was deep distrust of ‘Papists’.

The idea that Caesar could overwhelm perverse ingenuity by fear induced of tortuous death harks right back to the time when Our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ was crucified for His ‘religious beliefs’.

875 A king, Emperor or Dictator who conducts himself thus has always been seen and will always be seen as a tyrant – an idiot with whom rational conversation is impossible. The world of rational men is then automatically at war with such an idiot.

Luke 20:15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? 20:16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

880 At the Glorious Revolution, the Bill of Rights 1688 entrenched the idiotic idea that ‘Papists’ were treasonous and are to be hung drawn and quartered. No statute ‘law’ can survive which does not conform to universal principles that follow from the Law of Christ.

885 Shortly after the ‘Glorious Revolution’, the English Navy suffered a disastrous defeat at the hands of the French in the Battle of Beachy Head in 1690. The Governor and the Company of the Bank of England was incorporated in 1694, the Navy was rebuilt. Now Caesar had adopted perverse ingenuity.

890 By the American Civil War, Caesar had completely abandoned any restraint with regards to perverse ingenuity. An economic analysis is provided by Walter Bagehot in The English Constitution. Bagehot predicts the emergence of the military-industrial-banker complex. The idiocy has been carried to a MAD extreme at which point it is in process of being dismantled by its own discrete actions.

Recently, Her Majesty The Queen visited the Bank of England. Sir Mervin King was seen on a raised pedestal, talking down to Her Majesty The Queen. The message is: The false king, banking, must step down. We can trade substance for substance.

895 Anyone who argues that anything less will do and therefore that truth be suppressed and the fraud papered over by ‘recapitalizing NatWest, for example’, is a legal idiot.

England’s spiritual legacy from the century past

The sheer intensity of the history of the twentieth century did not fail to provide Her Majesty The Queen and the people of the Commonwealth unseen benefactors of the spirit.

900 We draw attention to Paul Brunton, an author who sold millions of copies of Search in Secret India and its sequel Search In Secret Egypt. PB went on to write extensively with the last book The Spiritual Crisis Of Man. After publishing an obituary in the sixties, he retired to Switzerland to perfect his contemplation of the kingdom of Heaven and wrote down paragraphs of Truth on a range of topics that are available as the Notebooks of Paul Brunton in sixteen printed 905 volumes. We in this Court of Record can attest to the priceless worth of contemplative treasure that has blessed this present writer with the insights shared in this and other Open Letters and inspired other authors who have researched every major wisdom tradition in the world.

One such researcher shared a story, which illustrates PB’s attainment. A Tibetan monastery was established in Switzerland by a High Lama who taught the current Dalai Lama.

910 An appointment was arranged for a visit, a taxi was hired. PB and our friend drove up the winding roads. A few hundred meters from the monastery, the cab was dismissed and they proceeded on foot. Travelling with a Sage is an ever new experience – the walk was unplanned. As they approached the monastery, the Abbot came out to greet them. “Got no car?”, the Abbot asked. “No got car!”, replied Paul Brunton. The Abbot spontaneously 915 performed prostrations to Paul Brunton, to the astonishment of our friend.

Our friend was kind enough to explain. There are two kinds of Buddhist tradition – Hinayana (the lesser vehicle) and Mahayana (the greater vehicle). PB uttering “No got car!” sparked the insight (also called spiritual vision) in the Abbot that his visitor had attained the ultimate state of having gone beyond the lesser vehicle (body, Idea of Man) and the greater 920 vehicle (universe, cosmic consciousness, World Idea). A staggering achievement - of living fully in the kingdom of Heaven<sup>60</sup>.

925 Normal people discuss personalities, ‘Margaret Thatcher!’, the thinking man discusses events, ‘Financial crisis!’, the wise discuss the reason-principles that are the Power by which the event manifests.

When history is taught, the dates and gory details are the highlights with irritating questions like the ones on the British Citizenship test - a farce if there ever was one which 930 should be scrapped at once. It was good of David Letterman to spring it on the Prime Minister.

To obtain the actual history, one has to look into the world of money. The world of money foreshadows the death and destruction wreaked on the battlefield.

What was the London that we all, regardless of being British or Russian or German, left behind in 1914? From The Economic Consequences of the Peace<sup>61</sup> by Lord Maynard Keynes:

935 What an extraordinary episode in the economic progress of man that age was which came to an end in August, 1914! The greater part of the population, it is true, worked hard and lived at a low standard of comfort, yet were, to all appearances, reasonably contented with this lot. 960 ... That is not the danger. The world is going to pieces. A very keen observer who has just come from Central Europe said to me, "I have seen a world going to pieces—men helpless, half-starved, benumbed; no fight in them, no revolution, because the men have no heart." Two British soldiers crossing a square in Vienna saw a hungry child. They took out a biscuit, and cast it to the child. You have seen when you throw a bit of bread on the ground how birds flock from every part, birds that you have never seen before. Well, hundreds of children came from nowhere; they clawed for that food, and it was with difficulty that these two British soldiers escaped with their lives!

965 What did the Great Leaders of Europe do about it? Lord Maynard Keynes leaves us in no doubt about it:

Then began the weaving of that web of sophistry and Jesuitical exegesis that was finally to clothe with insincerity the language and substance of the whole Treaty. The word was issued to the witches of all Paris:

Fair is foul, and foul is fair,
Hover through the fog and filthy air.

970 The subtlest sophisters and most hypocritical draughtsmen were set to work, and produced many ingenious exercises which might have deceived for more than an hour a cleverer man than the President [Wilson of U.S.]. ...

980 The French thought that they could adopt perverse ingenuity of the worst kind to steal from and strangle the enemy to live in style. What a price they paid a few decades later in World War II! What a price they are paying still, entrapped by the false religion of socialism! The entire European Union project as seen today in May 2013, complete with treaties, courts, banks, public schools, 'laws', bureaucrats, aficionados and accolades are in the exact same vein, babbling professors of perverse ingenuity.

Lunatics, the lot of them.

985 In 2013, the world is going to pieces ... are the bankers who help themselves to large bonuses going to hand out biscuits in Europe, etc? These men are not bankers. There is nothing banked – nothing is out at risk on loan! A void currency pyramid built by the Cult of Money<sup>63</sup>, an entire 'elite and rich' entrapped by their own inability to read write and do sums – whose untold millions are entrapped in for-idiots-only bank trade programs, 'blessed by Saint Germain'.

of crude oil in Gold Globals from 1946 to today<sup>65</sup>. For the sake of convenience 0.1 gram of gold is defined as one Gold Global. With that definition in place, it can be seen that the price of crude oil today is low - as the financial crisis exposes one lunatic after another. From Lord Maynard Keynes' The Economic Consequences of the Peace:

1000        The power to become habituated to his surroundings is a marked characteristic of mankind. Very few of us realize with conviction the intensely unusual, unstable, complicated, unreliable, temporary nature of the economic organisation by which Western Europe has lived for the last half century. We assume some of the most peculiar and temporary of our late advantages as natural, permanent, and to be depended on, and we lay our plans accordingly. On this sandy and false foundation we scheme for social improvement and dress our political 1005        platforms, pursue our animosities and particular ambitions, and feel ourselves with enough margin in hand to foster, not assuage, civil conflict in the European family. Moved by insane delusion and reckless self-regard ...

... politicians today debate 'in out referendum' with Europe whilst other lunatics propose an 'independence referendum' for Scotland. Just after the fall of Rome in 1870, a referendum was conducted in which the people sided with the victors. What a hollow, idiotic referendum!
1010 The Italians are starting to find out that their choice in 1870 had no force and that they were made legal idiots en masse.

The question has been mooted by Stephanie Flanders of the BBC<sup>66</sup>: Should Britain let go of London? Let us consider, for a moment, the question with all due seriousness. London produces nothing, lends nothing. It consumes vast resources. It is full of idiots and lunatics 1015 with important sounding formal titles. The formal mace<sup>67</sup> is even marched around in ceremony!

Perhaps then, it is time the 'high and mighty' in London's Westminster Palace, learn the lessons from the stupidity of Prime Minister Anthony Eden.

1020 Prime Minister Eden was one of the old boys, Winston Churchill's right hand man. He knew the English constitution, or so he must have thought: The Cabinet is the executive, Her Majesty The Queen is a rubber stamp. He conspired with the French in secret, left the Americans out and invaded Egypt. He was soon off on a boat to retirement in the Caribbean.

The world is managed by subtle means, the stick was given to the man with the stick, it is not his stick. The further lesson is that the Chancellor of the Exchequer is powerless, for he 1025 has no stick. There is no gold in circulation - therefore, the Treasury collects<sup>68</sup> no tax! The Treasury is as empty as a bubble in Sir Alan Greenspan's bathtub.

Perhaps this explains His Highness' joke to President Obama about the attendees at the G20 meeting. World history and the Rule of Law cannot be reduced to sex and race discrimination. Only an legal idiot or lunatic proposes such unthinking absurdity such as 'Strong Borders, keep the brownies and goblins out! We are protecting our benefits'. Part of the big lesson for Europe from the history of the last century is sex, birth and race based thinking as demonstrated to be false. The symbolic language of the lesson and perhaps the lesson itself went completely unnoticed. A review the videos of Hitler's rise to power shown on the BBC is instructive, paying attention to the politics of power delegation and the symbols in the arts.

1035 We are told now, by the City of London website<sup>69</sup>, "Today most of the practical reasons for obtaining the Freedom of the City have disappeared." What then is the 'freedom of the city' that has disappeared? The gold in the pockets of men and women.

One is at liberty if one has property and can trade that substance for other substance. City dwellers had their liberty in their money (gold and silver) on their person. A century of labour rights campaigns and miners strikes<sup>70</sup> later – it is gone.

1040 Parliamentarians have held self-congratulatory 'Great Offices of State' talks. The Lord High Chancellor Kenneth Clarke confirmed that the courts are 'star chamber courts' in contravention to statute law – The Bill of Rights 1688.

A historic first peace time Royal Cabinet Office meeting took place. A paraphrase of the first Question<sup>71</sup> from Her Majesty The Queen to Chancellor of the Exchequer George Osborne:

1045 Where is the gold?

That which is seen and that which is not seen

What is seen is that London appears more prosperous than ever, the bankers are back to paying bonuses! What is not seen is how this Global Zoo came to be and why you are in it.

1050 What is seen is that the Right Honourable Nigel Farage is no longer dismissed as a fruitcake in London, but that the Bulgarian Roma know how to handle him.

Frédéric Bastiat (1801-1850) published an essay Lo que se ve y lo que no se ve which, had the French and German politicians read and absorbed, it would have saved them two world wars. The essay<sup>72</sup>, which is enclosed, is required reading – idiots and lunatics excepted, any rational man would be saved from the battle of the isms – communism vs capitalism vs fascism – all 1055 seem to have been invented for weak and credulous minds. The mind is freed from the senseless maze of modern education... if not immediately – eventually. It is said that a liberal who learns economics becomes a libertarian<sup>73</sup>.

As the 'United kingdom' features a 'New' 'Labour Party', we must draw attention to the fallacy of Labour as the creators of value, which is discussed in section VIII, Machinery. To wit:

1060 "A curse on machines! Every year, their increasing power devotes millions of workmen to pauperism, by depriving them of work, and therefore of wages and bread. A curse on machines!"

70 'Bankers' in London are feeling terribly confident that they will rule the world with their current methods for they believe that they know more than contemplative Priests. Regardless of whether they went to public or private school, bankers of today were not taught about the difference between money and currency, choses in action, the law of names and title, Bills of Exchange, cryptography and Finality of Settlement. The genius of the men who ruled banking in the last century died with them. Look at the confidence of the Prime Minister of Spain shortly after the 2008 crash. Look at the confidence of that man in the BBC documentary on the subsequent crash to be able to 'blackmail' the Germans. "Y'all are too funny", as they say in Texas.

73 Libertarian as in the American and not the French sense of the word. Liberty first, rights are a consequence of liberty.

1065 Bastiat goes on to demonstrate the fallacy of this premise. No sane man today is going to propose that we stop using tractors, sewing machines or machinery. The coal miners in the 'United Kingdom' volunteered to give up their liberty by their idiotic actions. What is the secret of the Margaret Thatcher's success? Brains over brawn, or in a word: Mind.

1070 The Labour politicians over the last century managed to destroy the dignity of working men and women better than all the bombs Hitler ever dropped. If you watch the BBC documentary Welcome to India, you can witness a young man in Calcutta dig the sludge out of the sewers and extract – wait for it – gold! You can witness homeless people selling books and booze and being raided by the 'authorities'.

1075 What the western politicians will say is "increase the minimum wage" - what a ridiculous idea - it just means that if there is a small errand that could be run by the poor man, he cannot be offered the job because it is not worth the minimum wage. The poor in India have their dignity - they do what it takes: witness, they are of good cheer. The poor in London, maintained like zoo animals with safety goggles, indirectly subsidised by financial war, can only complain. The politicians are reduced to bargaining for handouts from the Prime Minister.

1080 What is not seen, is the extraordinarily sophisticated wealth extraction mechanism by which the gold from Calcutta's sewers reaches the Central Bankers. What is not seen, is how the multi-level open loop credit system and financial war have stolen from the poor in these documentaries to feed the 'rich west' - they support you, not you them, despite all the trumpeted 'aid'. What is not seen, is how this has destroyed the industry in the west and driven out all manufacturing. What is not seen, is how a century of wealth extraction from the world has transformed the world into a Panopticon<sup>74</sup> where relevant military technology is 1085 'Star Wars'. What is not seen, is that the financial war is over. What is not seen, is that the bill on behalf of all the world's people is in this Court of Record.

The Financial War – why British soldiers are in Afghanistan & Iraq

Do you think 'Occupy New York', Greenpeace or Wikileaks is going to do the trick? Do you think that an entity which only exists to protect all the people of the world can ignore this responsibility?

How do you defeat Caesar and Shylock when they have joined forces?

1095 Welcome to Reality: Do we start now? Quick, let's look up the Richard Dawkins bible. In it, we can find a rational way to state the problem - the game of prisoner's dilemma.

1100 What happens when someone in a Republic recognizes that the problem exists? You defect. You leave civilisation. Run for the hills, buy the Country Estate in Colorado, for example. Guns, gold, ammo, food. Underground nuclear shelter if you can afford it. A sailing boat to set off for that Pacific Island retreat. Some even rushed off to create nuclear armed 'sovereign' countries with puppet dictators. If you cannot afford all that, you flee with a one way ticket to the blue. All this has gone on, in spades.

The theoretical sovereign of a 'republic' stands no chance against a rogue government. Then comes the Civil War. ...

74 Jeremy Bentham's word that means a prison where the authorities see everything but the prisoner does not know he is being watched - like on the internet, telephones and streets of today.

The underground war

1105 It is inevitable. It has already happened – underground - worldwide. Over the ground too there is evidence of hostilities – the ‘sink-holes<sup>75</sup>’, the earthquakes and tsunamis.

There are high resolution photographs<sup>76</sup> of a blown up nuclear reactor – at Fukushima in Japan. The photographs have been available online for months. There is no doubt that the British government has better information.

1110 These photographs put our political and banking squabbles and problems in perspective. Now, let us envision a civilisation with an abundance of life, for all people without distinction of people and nations.

A brief look at the mechanics of money

1115 From Scottish Law comes the law of choses in action. A chose is a legal document that gives you a right to a particular property, but the property is not in hand. A bank note, a bank account balance, a futures contract, a court judgement awarding you a property (for example, with tenants who refuse to be evicted). A chose has value determined by the market but the real property is not in the hand. Where there is a market for such choses, they will trade at a discount.

1120 This legal insight was a precursor to Bills of Exchange, stock and risk/insurance/betting markets. Bills of Exchange are described in an article<sup>77</sup> by Professor Antal E. Fekete, reproduced in full thus:

Real bills revisited

1125 Adam Smith in his Wealth of Nations worked out the foundations of a second type of credit that is based, not on savings, but on consumption. Later this theory was pejoratively called "Real Bills Doctrine" by its detractors. We stick to this name because the adjective "real" admirably captures the essence of a bill of exchange, making it different from anticipation bills, accommodation bills, treasury bills, which all have a measure of being "unreal". What makes real bills real is that they represent real goods and real services in greatest demand without which society would stop functioning in a matter of months, if not weeks or days.

1130 Examples are: bread, seasonal clothes, fuel in winter; the services of the miller and the baker; the spinner and the weaver, etc. Seasonal goods will be removed from the market by the consumer during the next 91-day period, before the turn of seasons changes demand.

1135 A real bill, as its name suggests, is just a notice of payment due that typically the wholesale merchant sends to the retail merchant along with his shipment of goods demanded most urgently by the consumers. It is useful to think of the bill as a security in the process of "maturing into the gold coin" that the consumer will expend when he buys the underlying good. The value of the real bill, unlike that of most securities, is increasing day-after-day till maturity, which is at most 91 days away. By that time the goods itemised on the bill will have been sold to the ultimate gold-paying consumer and disbursement of the proceeds is in progress. The face value of the bill is the amount to be paid upon maturity.

1140 It is a grave error to think that the bill represents a loan transaction. The wholesaler is not lending and the retailer is not borrowing. The credit is an inseparable part of the transaction, as confirmed by centuries and centuries of merchant custom. The quoted price is never ever cash: it is "91 days net". The goods are more valuable and more liquid in the hands of the retailer than in the hands of the wholesaler by virtue of the former's greater proximity to the gold coin. Who is the wholesaler to extend a loan to the retailer?

1145 The most important aspect of a real bill is its metamorphosis that takes place when the retail merchant

1150 endorses it by writing "I accept" across its face over his signature. At that moment the character of the real bill changes from that of a notice of payment due, to that of a means of payment. In fact, the bill is acceptable in payment by the trade. It is returned to the wholesale merchant who can now replenish his inventory and pay his supplier with the bill complete with his endorsement. This metamorphosis of the bill from a notice of payment to a means of payment is one of the few miracles that economics has to deal with. Economists have to explain the circulation of real bills, and the fact that other bills such as accommodation bills just won't circulate. Nor will mortgages.

1155 This is certainly not a case of creating something out of nothing. Subsequent endorsements of the bill occur as the semi-finished good underlying the bill is passed on from the higher to the lower order producer. In each case the bill is subject to a discount, that is, the seller of semi-finished goods accepts the bill in payment subject to a reduction of face value proportional to the number of days remaining before maturity as well as to the prevailing discount rate.

1160 It is a serious error to confuse the discount rate with the rate of interest. The two have different sources: the propensity to consume and the propensity to save. The discount rate varies inversely with the propensity to consume; the rate of interest varies inversely with the propensity to save.

1165 The type of credit represented by the real bill is also called self-liquidating as all the obligations originating from the journey of the bill will be liquidated out of the proceeds of the final sale, that is, out of the gold coin surrendered by the ultimate consumer. Credits of other types are not self-liquidating. For example, a mortgage is not usually liquidated from the proceeds of the sale of the underlying real estate; typically it is liquidated over a long period of time from other sources. It is important that in the case of a bill of exchange the credit is liquidated simultaneously with the sale of the underlying merchandise and, therefore, self-liquidating credit is never inflationary.

1170 Self-liquidating credit is indispensable in paying labourers who produce the underlying goods, often as much as 91 days before the ultimate consumer purchases the product. In the meantime labourers must eat, get clad and shod. Thanks to self-liquidating credit, there is no problem in paying labour's worth long before the product is sold. The labourers' remuneration comes out of the proceeds from discounting the unexpired real bill. We express this dependence by saying: "No bills, no wage fund".

1175 Evidently, real bills make sense only in the context of a gold standard. The system worked for a hundred years without a hitch. It would be preposterous to suggest that a real bill "matures" into an irredeemable bank note. All things considered, both the bill and the note are instruments of credit but, of the two, the first is vastly superior. How can a superior instrument mature into an inferior one? It is also evident that the bill market is the clearing house of the gold standard. Even under a gold standard not all payments are made in the form of gold coins. Only balances arising between mature bills at the clearing house are settled in gold upon the closing of every business day. The vast majority of payments are made, not in gold but by "crossing out" the value of bills of equal value. Without the bill market the gold standard is still-born. Removing the bill market is tantamount to castrating the gold standard, making it impotent. Without bill circulation the gold standard will not perform, as we shall now see.

1185 Before 1914 world trade was financed through real bills drawn on London. Hostilities in World War I shut down the bill market. World trade became touch-and-go, strewn with shortages. After the armistice the Entente powers did not lift the economic blockade of Germany and other central powers but, in their wisdom, decided not to return to multilateral world trade at all. Instead, they kept international trade at the barter level what they called "bilateral trade". In this way they thought they could monitor and control Germany's imports and exports. They accepted the fact that this would also inconvenience their own producers and distributors, but for them it was a small price to pay for safety from German rearmament. They were blinded by hatred as they wanted to punish Germany over and above the provisions of the peace treaty. They forgot that the gold standard they reintroduced (the pound sterling was made gold-convertible in 1925) could not function without its clearing system, the bill market. The result was the vanishing of world trade, the Great Depression, the collapse of the gold standard and, most frightening, the destruction of the wage fund causing catastrophic unemployment world-wide -- as correctly predicted by the German economist Heinrich Rittershausen.

1195 The ban on international bill trading by the Entente was tantamount to the destruction of the wage fund. Producers of goods demanded most urgently by the consumers could no longer pay their labourers and laid them off. Governments were forced to pay out dole to the unemployed in order to contain social unrest. The gold standard did not fail because of its inner contradictions, as charged by Keynes. It failed because of sabotage by the Entente in blocking the international bill market, the clearing house of the gold standard.

1205 Under the regime of irredeemable currency self-liquidating credit plays no role whatever. As a consequence, the Debt Tower of Babel can only grow until it will topple, burying the world economy under the rubble. It would be most unfortunate if the gold standard were rehabilitated without rehabilitating its clearing house, the international bill market. Only the latter can replenish the wage fund so that everybody eager to earn wages could find a job.

Arguments that real bills are inflationary are based on ignorance of facts, as well as on ignorance of the rich literature on self-liquidating credit.

1210 If Paul Krugman of The New York Times really wanted to restore jobs to the unemployed, he would advocate the restoration of the gold standard and its clearing house, the international bill market.

The International Bill Market in London, governed by the Bills of Exchange Act 1882<sup>78</sup>, was shut down<sup>79</sup> at the onset of hostilities of World War I. Sir Max Aitken rose to raise objections to the plans of the then Government and list some of the consequences:

Hansard 24 Nov 1914 – WWI – International bill market closure

1215 Sir MAX AITKEN

I desire to associate myself with everything my right hon. Friend has said. Too much praise cannot be given to the Governor of the Bank of England. I am sure he has given great effort to the tremendous crisis with which he was confronted. The Chancellor of the Exchequer has also been praised on all sides, and I would like to add my voice to the chorus. But I have some criticism to make of the proposals he has brought forward in the last four months. I heard with a great deal of interest his assurance to the House that he thought the great London accepting houses would not default on any of their acceptances, and that no loss would consequently be sustained by the Government. I am sure that he is quite justified in that statement. The great accepting houses stand in splendid credit. They have not exceeded their functions in the past, consequently they were able to meet the stress and storm in this time of trouble. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, in his 1558 arrangements to meet the crisis, provided, in the first instance, for the discount of bills of exchange. Undoubtedly that was very necessary. Bills of exchange could find no market in the City. The discount of bills of exchange had entirely disappeared, and unless the Chancellor of the Exchequer had stepped in, the results would have been terrible. In my opinion, however, the Chancellor of the Exchequer went too far. He not only provided a discount market, but he relieved the last endorser on each bill that was brought to the bank. I listened to the speech of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, but I did not hear any explanation of his reason for relieving the last endorser of the bills that were brought to the bank when the Government's bill market, if I may so call it, was set up. I am sure the explanation he would give us is that the discount houses, apart from the accepting houses, were loaded up with liabilities, and that unless he relieved discount houses from their endorsements, they would not have been in a position to resume business when the Bank Holiday was over and in the following week, and consequently he readily released them from their endorsements in order to set their machinery going again.

1240 Clearly that was necessary. The discount houses are as necessary to the bill market as the accepting houses. Discount houses bring the paper of the accepting houses to the bank. They are the medium through which the business is transacted. Their profits are very small. They are represented by a very small commission, and notwithstanding that small commission the discount house on every occasion has to put its name on the back of the piece of paper. That is a very big liability that the discount house takes. Probably previous to the War it did not realise how serious that liability might become, and it was only when the bill market ceased entirely that the discount houses found themselves in the position of being called upon to carry out liabilities which they were quite unable to shoulder. But the Chancellor's relief of the last endorser went further than to relieve the discount houses. The provision was such that every last endorser was relieved. There were a great many bankers who had their bill cases at that time full of bills of the Deutsche Bank and the Dresdner Bank. These great merchant houses and banking houses immediately got their bills to the bank. It was the inevitable result of the release of the last endorser. They wanted 1559 to escape any liability on the bills that they held on the Dresdner and Deutsche Banks.

1250 Consequently the amount of bills was enormously increased by reason of the release of the last endorser.

1255 Instead of only those bills being brought to the bank which were necessary to carry on financial transactions in the City, there were plenty of bills brought for the sole reason that the endorser wanted to get rid of his liability and be relieved of his endorsement, and there are many financial houses of German origin, and the Dresdner and Deutsche Banks naturally took those bills previous to the War in preference to other bills, and consequently when the War came their bill cases were full of the bills of these German banks, and by the fact that their last endorsement was relieved by the regulations that the Chancellor had set up, they were able to hurry their bills over to the bank and convert them into very large sums of money and relieve themselves from any liability on them whatsoever. Just at that time the exchange rate with New York was very favourable. The sovereign was worth 5 dollars 15 cents. Two or three days before it was worth 6 dollars, perhaps 6 dollars 50 cents, but certainly as the banks resumed operations again and the market was resumed it was worth 5 dollars 15 cents. Many of these international houses, some of them of German origin, have New York houses and New York relations, and they naturally seized this opportunity in all probability, as every person did in the City who had money, to remit large sums of money to New York. The profit was tremendous. You could afford to pay almost any rate of interest, far greater than the banks were asking, for the discount of any bills at that time in order to get ready money which you could remit to New York at very high rates. Consequently houses and firms with international relations of German origin found themselves with large sums of cash which they naturally remitted to New York at very advantageous rates and high profits. I have in my mind one particular house presided over by the head of the firm, a very eminent gentleman, a man of great ability and great courage, a man who has carried on great business operations in the past. He was also a partner in the New York branch of his firm, and shortly after the War broke out he retired from the firm with 1560 the announcement that after the War was over he would resume his partnership again. I do not know whether he took his money out of the New York house or not. I do not know whether his firm took any bills to the bank or not. Very likely they did. I do not know if they remitted any money or not at the time sovereigns were selling for 5 dollars 15 cents. But I know that the New York partner in that firm has contributed to the German War Loan.

1280 In all probability the New York partner of that firm was able to contribute to the loan by reason of the arrangements for the resumption of the bill market in the City of London. Not only that, but another firm in New York whose bills frequently circulate in this market. Mueller, Schall and Co., have contributed to the German War Loan. I do not know whether their bills were handed into the bank when the right hon. Gentleman's arrangements for the resumption of the bill market were set up, but I think very likely they were. They received direct benefit from the resumption of the bill market, and were able to use the proceeds for the purpose of subscribing to the German War Loan. That could easily have been guarded against if the right hon. Gentleman, instead of setting up the general bill market and releasing endorsers generally, had restricted his release of endorsers to the discount houses apart from the accepting houses—the houses through which the bills pass to the market—also if, instead of taking the bill cases of merchant houses, he had said first of all, "I shall have to ascertain and be satisfied that it is necessary for you to come to this market." At present there are only £50,000,000 of bills left. Naturally the price of them has gone up. The best disappear first and the bad bills remain to the very last. But there are £50,000,000 of them left yet. The Chancellor of the Exchequer hopes that the loss will not be more than £7,000,000. I think it will be a great deal more than £7,000,000; but it is quite sure that in that £50,000,000 of bills he has accumulated a great many of the Dresdner and Deutsche banks, and the German discount houses. It must not be forgotten in this discussion that the machinery which the right hon. Gentleman set up was not machinery solely for the benefit of London accepting houses. It was also machinery which, while it safeguarded the acceptances of the London houses, safeguarded the acceptances of the German banks in London.

Thus began a most terrifying chapter in the history of Christendom. It was, as Lord Maynard Keynes called it, the European Civil War:

1300 *... Europe is solid with herself. France, Germany, Italy, Austria and Holland, Russia and Roumania and Poland, throb together, and their structure and civilisation are essentially one. They flourished together, they have rocked together in a war, which we, in spite of our enormous contributions and sacrifices (like though in a less degree than America), economically stood outside, and they may fall together. In this lies the destructive significance of the Peace of Paris. If the European Civil War is to end with France and Italy abusing their momentary victorious power to destroy Germany and Austria-Hungary now prostrate, they invite their own destruction also, being so 1305 deeply and inextricably intertwined with their victims by hidden psychic and economic bonds.

The British politicians who are objecting today to the way the European Union conducts itself will surely recognize the spirit of the Paris Peace Conference of 1919:

1310 The proceedings of Paris all had this air of extraordinary importance and unimportance at the same time. The decisions seemed charged with consequences to the future of human society; yet the air whispered that the word was not flesh, that it was futile, insignificant, of no effect, dissociated from events ...

Just to be sure that we recognize the false spirit when it shows up again, Lord Maynard Keynes has left us these verses:

Spirit of the Years

1315 *Observe that all wide sight and self-command
Deserts these throngs now driven to demonry
By the Immanent Unrecking. Nought remains
But vindictiveness here amid the strong,
And there amid the weak an impotent rage.*

Spirit of the Pities

1320 Why prompts the Will so senseless-shaped a doing?

Spirit of the Years

*I have told thee that It works unwittingly,
As one possessed not judging.*

1325 We have observed this false spirit is ever present in every news item and legislative debate and we have waited for the great and the good to come forth with their plan for the future of Christendom, but instead, we have witnessed the Dark Night of the Soul descend on Europe and the World, peaking in that difficult weekend that ended with the startling announcement on the 11th of February 2013: Pope Benedict XVI had resigned.

1330 *Luke 17:5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

17:6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

1335 17:7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat? 17:8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? 17:9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

1340 *17:10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants<sup>80</sup>: we have done that which was our duty to do.

What is the purpose of an economic system?

1345 The purpose of an economic system is to move goods provided by nature to those that consume it in such a manner that the liberty and life of all men and women, without distinction of people and nations are blessed by the Law of Christ so we all live with an abundance of life and peace.

80 It can be witnessed that 'unprofitable' government servants have forgotten who they serve.

What is the most difficult problem in economics?

To transform the good of him that hath to the food of him whose need it is.

*The old proverb is very well parted between my master Shylock and you, sir:
you have the grace of God, sir, and he hath enough.*

1350 - Shakespeare

How did wise men of ancient days solve this problem?

By building a temple or church. A good example would be perhaps the stone age structures discovered on the north of Scotland which puzzles Neil Oliver, BBC presenter. In an Indian temple, the unbroken tradition from ancient days can be witnessed as anna dhanam<sup>81</sup>.

1355 *Annam bahu kurveet tad vratam
Work for the multiplication of life*

- Taittiriya Upanishad<sup>82</sup>

1360 The strapping young man has returned with his catch of fish. He is strong enough to fight off the rest of the tiny village on the North of Scotland and keep it for himself and the lovely girl he has chosen for himself. How do you get him to share? The wise village elders will have inculcated in him when he was a little boy that he must offer it first to God. When he is older and wiser, yet weaker in body, he too will pass the timeless wisdom on to the young. He will have friends in times of need. When the enemy comes, the village is strong, standing together as one man against them.

1365 The deeper meaning found in the Taittiriya Upanishad is that it is the 'material' food itself that transforms into your 'subtle' consciousness. To 'seek God', that is, to refine and expand consciousness to perceive the presence of Mind, strict restrictions are specified for diet. Diet and 'health care', both of body and of mind cannot be separated. The wise gird their loins and do their duty so all people may have an abundance of life.

1370 How do we end Austerity?

First, one must accept the Truth – if not the Law of Christ which might be subtle yet, then the fact of how the world civilisation you live in has been built:

Saint Peter has borrowed the wealth of the world and built a civilisation for you.

How are you going to repay him?

1375 Fact: *Saint Peter feeds you every day. The void money you spend at the grocery store is backed by nothing – you thief! You have not kept faith in God, but the Bishop of Rome has kept it for you.

Fact: *Saint Peter has saved you from Armageddon and worse -

1395 17:4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

The decades of mistrust

1400 “Trust in God” says a ONE dollar Federal Reserve Note. But those who ran the republic did not trust – not God, they did not trust another living man or woman. “Trust but verify”, said Ronald Reagan. ... they did not trust, they did not even try an honest game.

1405 The post-1971 era after President Nixon took the United States off a gold standard is filled with shame. The essence of the shameful game is simple, get Americans to sign IOUs into existence (fraud in the inducement, fraudulent conversion) and circulate them as though they were dollars. In a republic, men and women are ‘sovereigns’, they should know how to read, write and sign contracts – but they do not.

1410 Send these contracts overseas in exchange for goods and oil ... when they came back the formal foreign governments and their Central Banks could do only one thing – buy US Treasury Bills. An unlimited supply of signature dollars – a limited quantity of bonds sets a ‘low interest rate’ at auction as the funds seek the safety of the future liabilities of Caesar backed by the threat of intimidation and violent force. The foreign Central Banks know that the bank-liabilities to pay dollars are backed by legal idiots.

1415 The nonsense we hear about the Federal Reserve ‘setting interest rates’ is disinformation. The Federal Reserve brokers the sale of US Treasury Bills, earns the commission in Treasury Bills, pledges the resulting bonds that were earnings back to the government printing agent, which prints ‘legal tender’ dollars.

This ensures that, as a rule of thumb, the supply of legal tender dollars is 1/100th that of ‘bank account money’ and a less than 1% ‘interest rate’. Quantitative Easing is nothing but the accommodation of insiders on Caesar’s balance sheet.

1420 Derivatives are like insurance policies, the huge numbers you hear about are not legal tender. Just like your home and health insurance mops up your pay cheque, the derivatives mop up bank-liabilities to pay legal tender.

The ‘rich’ were sold offshore corporations by lawyers. ‘Untaxed’ bank funds, originally obtained by fraudulent conversion get parked away, preventing runaway inflation. The funds are void because there is no gold or legal tender in those banks.

1425 The ‘ambitious and greedy’ were drawn into ‘forex trading’ where, glued to a casino that magnifies actions a hundredfold more, they live in a virtual reality world made for them.

1430 The 1% of ‘dollars’ that are legal tender are also a problem – they will cause street price inflation. The solution was the Rockefeller Drug Laws. The strategy was to sell ‘illegal drugs’ to Americans who consequently lose their minds and then smuggle the cash overseas for ‘money laundering’ in offshore banks. All this to prevent Armageddon. This is why the boys are dying in Afghanistan.

Therein lies many a tale – treat the following as ‘faction’<sup>83</sup>:

1435 The writings of Christopher Story FRSA who published World Reports<sup>84</sup> and reported the Leo Wanta story is part of the picture. The Pureheart-GOTSA (Geneva Oil Traders) transactions investigated by Lord James of Blackheath<sup>85</sup> is another part – with the lack of investigation sitting in the Public Accounts Committee – and a tale of blue and red boxes, grey books, bureaucrats worrying about their retirement, etc.

1440 The ‘bat shit bonds’<sup>86</sup> and the assumption of the debt of Latin America by the United States and the ‘oldest bond wins’ is another tale – with photocopies ‘as good as originals’. Then there are smuggled fake UST bonds that showed up in Italy – as fake as the ‘originals’. Then there are smuggled nuclear secrets and the creation of a blackmail apparatus where ‘security firms’ rigged nuclear reactors worldwide. Then there are a number of ‘legal idiots’ who are suing governments for mucho dollars. There is a penalty for running of limitations:

1445 Any decent living being won’t want any part of this. Those who did not pay tax turn into saints! Those who live in the alternative FRN cash economy, smuggling goods made in China into the largest real economy in the world across Africa and Latin America – are the people who are the honest traders, just the same as the smugglers who sponsored the ‘American Revolution’. Yea, keep taxes high, try and collect ... the formal Caesar thinks he can 1450 scare the innocent Children of Our Lord! Those who show their passports and get their iris scanned – are legal idiots.

Karma is playing catch up: Wikileaks is bad? Remember Crypto AG? Or papers on the desk?

Ye of little faith, how great would be the tyranny if that were the case. The gold is demonstrably useless – they have not used it in years! Why do you think Our Father in Heaven has a need for it? Did you think that the The Sovereign and the Children of Our Lord would be reduced to the begging bowl? Far from it.

Two Penniless Boys in Brindaban<sup>89</sup>

"It would serve you right if Father disinherited you, Mukunda! How foolishly you are throwing away your life!" An elder-brother sermon was assaulting my ears.

"You well know, Ananta, I seek my inheritance from the Heavenly Father."

"Money first; God can come later! Who knows? Life may be too long."

1475

"God first; money is His slave! Who can tell? Life may be too short."

"Wisdom from the hermitage, I suppose! But I see you have left Benares." Ananta's eyes gleamed with satisfaction; he yet hoped to secure my pinions in the family nest.

Ananta hospitably arranged for our comfort. Several times during the evening I noticed his eyes fixed on me reflectively.

"I know that look!" I thought. "A plot is brewing!"

The denouement took place during our early breakfast.

"So you feel quite independent of Father's wealth." Ananta's gaze was innocent as he resumed the barbs of yesterday's conversation.

"I am conscious of my dependence on God."

"Words are cheap! Life has shielded you thus far! What a plight if you were forced to look to the Invisible Hand for your food and shelter! You would soon be begging on the streets!"

"Never! I would not put faith in passers-by rather than God! He can devise for His devotee a thousand resources besides the begging-bowl!"

"More rhetoric! Suppose I suggest that your vaunted philosophy be put to a test in this tangible world?"

"I would agree! Do you confine God to a speculative world?"

"We shall see; today you shall have opportunity either to enlarge or to confirm my own views!" Ananta paused for a dramatic moment; then spoke slowly and seriously.

"I propose that I send you and your fellow disciple Jitendra this morning to the near-by city of Brindaban. You must not take a single rupee; you must not beg, either for food or money; you must not reveal your predicament to anyone; you must not go without your meals; and you must not be stranded in Brindaban. If you return to my bungalow here before twelve o'clock tonight, without having broken any rule of the test, I shall be the most astonished man in Agra!"

"I accept the challenge." No hesitation was in my words or in my heart. Grateful memories flashed of the Instant Beneficence: my healing of deadly cholera through appeal to Lahiri Mahasaya's picture; ... and the ultimate boon, my living Master from the mist of lifelong dreams. Never could I admit my "philosophy" unequal to any tussle on the world's harsh proving ground!

1500

"Your willingness does you credit. I'll escort you to the train at once." Ananta turned to the openmouthed Jitendra. "You must go along as a witness and, very likely, a fellow victim!"

A half hour later Jitendra and I were in possession of one-way tickets for our impromptu trip. We submitted, in a secluded corner of the station, to a search of our persons. Ananta was quickly satisfied that we were carrying no hidden hoard; our simple dhotis concealed nothing more than was necessary. As faith invaded the serious realms of finance, my friend spoke protestingly. "Ananta, give me one or two rupees as a safeguard. Then I can telegraph you in case of misfortune."

1510 "Jitendra!" My ejaculation was sharply reproachful. "I will not proceed with the test if you take any money as final security."

"There is something reassuring about the clink of coins." Jitendra said no more as I regarded him sternly.

1515 "Mukunda, I am not heartless." A hint of humility had crept into Ananta's voice. It may be that his conscience was smiting him; perhaps for sending two insolvent boys to a strange city; perhaps for his own religious scepticism. "If by any chance or grace you pass successfully through the Brindaban ordeal, I shall ask you to initiate me as your disciple."

This promise had a certain irregularity, in keeping with the unconventional occasion. The eldest brother in an Indian family seldom bows before his juniors; he receives respect and obedience second only to a father. But no time remained for my comment; our train was at point of departure.

1520 Jitendra maintained a lugubrious silence as our train covered the miles. Finally he bestirred himself; leaning over, he pinched me painfully at an awkward spot.

"I see no sign that God is going to supply our next meal!"

"Be quiet, doubting Thomas; the Lord is working with us."

1525 "Can you also arrange that He hurry? Already I am famished merely at the prospect before us. I left Benares to view the Taj's mausoleum, not to enter my own!"

"Cheer up, Jitendra! Are we not to have our first glimpse of the sacred wonders of Brindaban? I am in deep joy at thought of treading the ground hallowed by feet of Lord Krishna."

The door of our compartment opened; two men seated themselves. The next train stop would be the last.

1530 "Young lads, do you have friends in Brindaban?" The stranger opposite me was taking a surprising interest.

"None of your business!" Rudely I averted my gaze.

1535 "You are probably flying away from your families under the enchantment of the Stealer of Hearts. I am of devotional temperament myself. I will make it my positive duty to see that you receive food, and shelter from this overpowering heat."

"No, sir, let us alone. You are very kind; but you are mistaken in judging us to be truants from home."

No further conversation ensued; the train came to a halt. As Jitendra and I descended to the platform, our chance companions linked arms with us and summoned a horse cab.

1540 We alight before a stately hermitage, set amidst the evergreen trees of well-kept grounds. Our benefactors were evidently known here; a smiling lad led us without comment to a parlour. We were soon joined by an elderly woman of dignified bearing.

"Gauri Ma, the princes could not come." One of the men addressed the ashram hostess. "At the last moment their plans went awry; they send deep regrets. But we have brought two other guests. As soon as we met on the train, I felt drawn to them as devotees of Lord Krishna."

1545 "Good-by, young friends." Our two acquaintances walked to the door. "We shall meet again, if God be willing."

"You are welcome here." Gauri Ma smiled in motherly fashion on her two unexpected charges. "You could not have come on a better day. I was expecting two royal patrons of this hermitage. What a shame if my cooking had found none to appreciate it!"

1550 These appetising words had disastrous effect on Jitendra: he burst into tears. The "prospect" he had feared in Brindaban was turning out as royal entertainment; his sudden mental adjustment proved too much for him. Our hostess looked at him with curiosity, but without remark; perhaps she was familiar with adolescent quirks.

1555 Lunch was announced; Gauri Ma led the way to a dining patio, spicy with savoury odours. She vanished into an adjoining kitchen.

I had been premeditating this moment. Selecting the appropriate spot on Jitendra's anatomy, I administered a pinch as resounding as the one he had given me on the train.

"Doubting Thomas, the Lord works in a hurry, too!"

1560

The hostess re-entered with a punkha. She steadily fanned us in the Oriental fashion as we squatted on ornate blanket-seats. Ashram disciples passed to and fro with some thirty courses. Rather than "meal," the description can only be "sumptuous repast." Since arriving on this planet, Jitendra and I had never before tasted such delicacies.

"Dishes fit for princes indeed, Honoured Mother! What your royal patrons could have found more urgent than attending this banquet, I cannot imagine! You have given us a memory for a lifetime!"

Silenced as we were by Ananta's requirement, we could not explain to the gracious lady that our thanks held a double significance. Our sincerity at least was patent. We departed with her blessing and an attractive invitation to revisit the hermitage.

The heat outdoors was merciless. My friend and I made for the shelter of a lordly Cadamba tree at the ashram gate. Sharp words followed; once again Jitendra was beset with misgivings.

"A fine mess you have got me into! Our luncheon was only accidental good fortune! How can we see the sights of this city, without a single pice between us? And how on earth are you going to take me back to Ananta's?"

"You forget God quickly, now that your stomach is filled." My words, not bitter, were accusatory. How short is human memory for divine favours! No man lives who has not seen certain of his prayers granted.

"I am not likely to forget my folly in venturing out with a madcap like you!"

"Be quiet, Jitendra! The same Lord who fed us will show us Brindaban, and return us to Agra."

A slight young man of pleasing countenance approached at rapid pace. Halting under our tree, he bowed before me.

"Dear friend, you and your companion must be strangers here. Permit me to be your host and guide." It is scarcely possible for an Indian to pale, but Jitendra's face was suddenly sickly. I politely declined the offer.

"You are surely not banishing me?" The stranger's alarm would have been comic in any other circumstances.

"Why not?"

"You are my guru." His eyes sought mine trustfully. "During my midday devotions, the blessed Lord Krishna appeared in a vision. He showed me two forsaken figures under this very tree. One face was yours, my master! Often have I seen it in meditation! What joy if you accept my humble services!"

"I too am glad you have found me. Neither God nor man has forsaken us!" Though I was motionless, smiling at the eager face before me, an inward obeisance cast me at the Divine Feet.

"Dear friends, will you not honour my home for a visit?"

"You are kind; but the plan is infeasible. Already we are guests of my brother in Agra."

"At least give me memories of touring Brindaban with you."

1595

I gladly consented. The young man, who said his name was Pratap Chatterji, hailed a horse carriage. We visited Madanamohana Temple and other Krishna shrines. Night descended while we were at our temple devotions.

"Excuse me while I get sandesh." Pratap entered a shop near the rail-road station. Jitendra and I sauntered along the wide street, crowded now in the comparative coolness. Our friend was absent for some time, but finally returned with gifts of many sweetmeats.

"Please allow me to gain this religious merit." Pratap smiled pleadingly as he held out a bundle of rupee notes and two tickets, just purchased, to Agra.

The reverence of my acceptance was for the Invisible Hand. Scoffed at by Ananta, had its bounty not far exceeded necessity?

We sought out a secluded spot near the station.

"Pratap, I will instruct you in the Kriya of Lahiri Mahasaya, the greatest yogi of modern times. His technique will be your guru."

The initiation was concluded in a half hour. "Kriya is your chintamani," I told the new student. "The 1610 technique, which as you see is simple, embodies the art of quickening man's spiritual evolution. Hindu scriptures teach that the incarnating ego requires a million years to obtain liberation from maya. This natural period is greatly shortened through Kriya Yoga. Just as Jagadis Chandra Bose has demonstrated that plant growth can be accelerated far beyond its normal rate, so man's psychological development can be also speeded by an inner science. Be faithful in your practice; you will approach the Guru of all gurus."

1615 "I am transported to find this yogic key, long sought!" Pratap spoke thoughtfully. "Its unshackling effect on my sensory bonds will free me for higher spheres. The vision today of Lord Krishna could only mean my highest good."

1620 We sat awhile in silent understanding, then walked slowly to the station. Joy was within me as I boarded the train, but this was Jitendra's day for tears. My affectionate farewell to Pratap had been punctuated by stifled sobs from both my companions. The journey once more found Jitendra in a welter of grief. Not for himself this time, but against himself.

"How shallow my trust! My heart has been stone! Never in future shall I doubt God's protection!"

1625 Midnight was approaching. The two "Cinderellas," sent forth penniless, entered Ananta's bedroom. His face, as he had promised, was a study in astonishment. Silently I showered the table with rupees.

"Jitendra, the truth!" Ananta's tone was jocular. "Has not this youngster been staging a hold-up?"

But as the tale was unfolded, my brother turned sober, then solemn.

"The law of demand and supply reaches into subtler realms than I had supposed."

Ananta spoke with a spiritual enthusiasm never before noticeable. "I understand for the first time your indifference to the vaults and vulgar accumulations of the world."

1630 Late as it was, my brother insisted that he receive diksha into Kriya Yoga. The "guru" Mukunda had to shoulder the responsibility of two unsought disciples in one day.

Breakfast the following morning was eaten in a harmony absent the day before. ...

1635 Our Lord is unanticipatory ever-newness in the realm of flesh, but in the causal realm the future is, even as a 'compact disc' contains the entire symphony in sound and light – as heard from the innumerable 'points of view'<sup>90</sup> in the audience. There is no thing 'alien' to the consciousness of Christ.

1640 Matthew 6:25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? 6:26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? 6:27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? 6:28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 6:29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

1645 6:30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? 6:31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 6:32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

1650 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

6:34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

The disease to be cured: blood stasis of the Western Soul

1655 On the quiet confidence of those who have gold in those 'deep underground' vaults:

23:16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor! 23:17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? 23:18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

1660 23:25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

23:27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

1665 23:28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

Let us not forget the gold plated tungsten bars ... from The General Epistle of James:

5:1 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

1670 5:2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

5:3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

'Bankers' who are used to the whips of fraudulent conversion, Geneva Oil Traders with a Pure Heart or Oil Men, even the well intentioned ones armed with a bible, cannot cure the disease of blood stasis in the world of men and women – the gold is stationary in the vaults, no gold is at risk.

1685 Injecting 15 Trillion in void commercial currency and the mopping it up by the perverse ingenuity of the MTN market is a reverse use of the principles of Bills of Exchange.

The cure is to have God's substance as money ('currency' contracts or vouchers to deliver good substance) in the pockets (virtual these days, with mobile phones) of the men and women of the land.

The population of the West, unused to exchanging substance for substance, having lived without a real market for two generations, could not survive a season with the rigour of real money that is gold directly put into circulation. 1700 The bank crisis in Cyprus reveals the world’s banking system is broken beyond repair. The legal idiot ‘doctor’ prescribed ‘clotting medicine’ for Cyprus. Look at the result!

No ‘banking centre’ anywhere is safe – the formal Caesar cannot pay his bonds - the taxes are not collectable - and the Commercial Banks, onshore as well as offshore, cannot pay their depositors in legal tender.

1705 Anyone who knows the offshore world knows that the high and mighty offshore banks steal/freeze entire accounts without any due process – we have evidence for this on HSBC Bank, as a public example. It is not just gold as money that is in blood stasis, the entire bank-liability Circus Maximus operated by leading brand name banks are stuck in blood stasis.

1710 Job 13:24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy? 13:25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble? 13:26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

13:27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

13:28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

1715 Yet, in a world run by lunatics and idiots, what is to be done? The sun shines, the rain falls, has the Lord of the Day gone on holiday? Yet we know that the creatures of the night wait their turn, come darkness, the vampire bats are eager to dive into the pool of blood<sup>92</sup> ...

1720 Let us put our faith in God: God’s substance is God’s love for us. Let us exchange substance for substance and starve Caesar and Shylock. “Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God” as Pope Benedict XVI preached in his last Christmas sermon<sup>93</sup>.

Pope Francis on work, dignity, human trafficking & care for goods of creation

1725 Vatican City, May 1, 2013 / 10:42 am (CNA/EWTN News).- Marking the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker, Pope Francis said at his General Audience this week that work should serve man and contribute to his dignity, rather than man serving his work.

“How many people worldwide are victims of this type of slavery, in which the person is at the service of his or her work, while work should offer a service to people so they may have dignity,” the Pope said May 1 at St. Peter's Square.

1730 He added a plea to “my brothers and sisters in faith and all men and women of good will for a decisive choice to combat trafficking in persons, which is a part of 'slave labour.'”

Rather than a restricted view of “slave labour” focusing only on enslavement and human trafficking, the 92 Or feast on Sea Lions at night as seen recently on BBC.

93 www.courtrecord.org/archive/benedict-xvi/christmas-message.html

Pope said that any “work that enslaves” could be considered “slave labour.”

1735 Work should instead respect the inherent worth of the human person, as Christ learned growing up from his legal father, St. Joseph.

“Jesus is born and lives in a family, in the Holy Family, learning the craft of carpenter from Saint Joseph in his workshop in Nazareth, sharing with him the commitment, effort, satisfaction, and also the difficulties of every day.”

1740 Pope Francis said this is a reminder for us of the “dignity and importance” of labour. “Work is part of God's loving plan,” he said, and the Lord calls us to “cultivate and care for all the goods of creation,” thereby participating in the “work of creation.”

“Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. Work, to use an image, 'anoints' us with dignity, fills us with dignity, makes us similar to God, who has worked and still works, who always acts; it gives us the ability to maintain ourselves, our family, to contribute to the growth of our nation.”

1745 The Holy Father then reflected on the unemployment afflicting so many, which he said is often due to “a purely economic conception of society, which seeks selfish profit, beyond the parameters of social justice.” In light of this situation, he called for solidarity among all persons, for politicians to encourage employment out of care “for the dignity of the person,” and for people everywhere to maintain hope.

1750 “St. Joseph also experienced moments of difficulty, but he never lost faith and was able to overcome them, in the certainty that God never abandons us,” he remarked. ...

More lessons from Cyprus

1755 A quick look at the external facts show that Cyprus has a number of Russian ‘depositors’ who have some rather large Euro accounts. Where did the Euros originate? By deductive reasoning we can conclude that they represent the promissory notes of Europeans put on deposit by the commercial banks and or possibly Euro ‘deposits’ created by European banks as ‘currency neutralisation’ for ‘foreign’ ‘inflows’.

1760 Russia exports a lot of oil to Europe – consumed by millions of people. The accumulated promissory notes of millions of Europeans by Russian who believe they are depositors, is what is lodged at a Cyprus bank. The Russians do not buy goods in Europe that goes back to millions of Russians. In other words they do not spend their Euros. Without the Euros re-entering circulation, the Europeans cannot earn them back to pay their ‘commercial loans’.

We have had a profound loss of meaning in our books of account.

- and ‘Courts’.

1765 God’s substance is what is ‘profit’ and ‘wealth’

Let us consider British Petroleum, or any other oil company that does everything from drill for oil to maintain a petrol pump that fills your car.

God (or nature) does not charge them any money – the oil (God’s substance from elements made in the Heavens long before the Earth was born) comes out of the ground for free.

1770 Let us ignore the book of accounts of the oil company and the taxes they pay to Caesar.

1775 What we see then, the ‘free’ oil gets progressively more valuable as it gets transformed from crude oil to the various grades of petrol that are pumped into the car. How much more valuable? The answer is the ratio between one litre of petrol to one litre of crude oil. British Petroleum can maintain its entire set of books in the natural substance that it deals in. It can pay dividends in that substance. That substance in this case, crude oil, has a long term ‘profitable’ ratio to gold: G20/barrel.

The ‘profit’ that the company derives, comes from God – for taking the crude substance out of the ground for free, to refining and adding value by the processes of Mind (how much “labour” is involved?). The entire process is largely automated.

1780 All the necessary substance – the steel and other substances for the oil rigs and machines involved – are obtained from other producers of goods – mostly also all automated.

In the west, the wheat, carrots, milk and other products of agriculture are also produced by largely automated processes.

1785 The only thing wrong with our society is the Cult of Money, run by legal idiots in banking. Let us now examine the ‘capital’ invested in British Petroleum – which is represented by the material good substance in special form – the oil rigs, the refineries, etc. The capital was obtained by a century of fraudulent conversion from the people of the world, which is to say the banks are the borrower.

1790 The gold of the people is safe. Saint Peter has borrowed it from the people to put it out of the reach of tyrants. The Federal Reserve is his bank. The Bishop of Rome, the Apostolic representative and successor to Saint Peter, has ‘kept it wrapped up in a piece of cloth’. He knows the Trust Law of Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, which we have explained and declared.

When is British Petroleum going to pay the dividends which are due to Saint Peter?

1795 p.s.: Consequently, BP can forget the fine from Caesar, who shall vanish like a bankrupt ghost.

The unwritten constitution

1800 The Empire of Rome was conquered by the Law of Christ, the Keys to this empire and all the Rights of Caesar were left to the Bishop of Rome by Our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. One Christ, Our Father in Heaven<sup>94</sup> is the settlor, the living Apostolic successor, the Bishop of Rome is the trustee.

The ancient Kingdoms of England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland are trusts, The Bishop of Rome is the settlor, Her Majesty The Queen of England is the current living Trustee.

We have already discussed how Almighty God rebuked The Bishop of Rome for failure to transmit the Law of Christ to the people in the 1500s.

1805 The people of England, the beneficiaries of the King of England trust, replaced their trustee for failure to maintain their liberty by the Declaration of Rights 1688. This is an Act of Almighty God<sup>95</sup>.

The United Nations is a trust, the Bishop of Rome is the settlor and Her Majesty The Queen of England is the trustee. The formal corporation is a fig leaf.

1810 It is the same with the European Union.

Great Britain is the most Christian country<sup>96</sup>. She retreated before the Law of Christ as it expressed itself in India. When Mahatma Gandhi picked up salt from the beaches, he sent a Christian message. The astounding fact is that Governor-General understood it:

God’s substance is there to feed His people.

94 Is it not clear why Father Benedict XVI said, “he does not dare!”

95 God Almighty, has Himself painted the development of ‘American’ and ‘British’ Common Law. The message: It is the right of a living man or woman to a the neutral Court of Record of the Sovereign.

Woe unto them who pretend that Britain is yet to get its first Bill of Rights. Ye are naked before this Court.

God has wrought soul perfection by the imperfect acts of men.

96 Woe unto them who wish to break it up and claim fiefdoms.

1815 Almighty God has explained Himself – *the ever new Law of Christ is available to living Masters of Contemplation. We have declared the Law of Christ to you.

Recirculating God's Substance – the cure

“Physics drives finance, finance drives politics”

- Robert Hettinga

1820 To expect that finance can change the laws of physics is to expect the impossible. It is our mind that controls physics – take for example, a journey from London to Edinburgh – we could walk (labour) or get in our horseless carriage (car) and twiddle our toes, pressing the accelerator, etc. The substance of God powers the car, the mind of the engineers is what has made it possible – down to the catalytic converter that has banished the thick automotive smog of the prior era.

1825 Every commercial transaction is self inflicted theft by fraudulent conversion. This is what has to stop for the world of the Cult of Money is not in accordance with the Law of Christ which is what results in our karma. The karma the West is building will destroy it – unless men and women of goodwill act now.

1830 The way of the Cult of Money to exchange substance is that we have 100+ imaginary quantities (world currencies), each a pyramid of fraud. To exchange Brent Crude for Brazilian Iron Ore required a cast of fraudsters and idiots who would make Mammon blush.

The legal idiots who are into “high frequency” forex trading facilitate the movement of money between banks. Forex is a zero sum game. What one person loses, another gains.
1835 The forex market is a currency pump that can drain or add ‘liquidity’, move funds from place to place (go long at this broker in one place and short at the other broker). If the trend is with you, the ‘money’ is moved.

The regulators “have no teeth” as we already know from Her Majesty The Queen. The bankers cannot help us, nor the International Monetary Fund. They all know nothing but fraud as a means of population coercion. No one trusts them.

“As is customary, I bargained with the roasted peanut vendor at the railway station in India. The peanut vendor said, ‘I am giving you real peanuts, you are giving me a piece of paper’.”

- A member of our Court, during their travel in India.

Settlement of Law and Money – what has to be done

1845 What is to be done is this – there are long term ratios that are relatively stable. Any oil company would be willing<sup>97</sup> to sell light crude oil at 20 Gold Globals<sup>98</sup> a barrel. Today, using computers we track the 100s of commodities and 100s of currencies. Let us drop the void currencies – one more day spent running this circus is one more blight against our name (all living men and women) in the Kingdom of Heaven.

1850 Major standardised commodity producers are the natural issuers of God's substance as money. The software for issuance and circulation has been functioning in the small community of the Global Settlement Foundation for the last three years.

Petrol, diesel, kilowatt hours ... to eggs ... have a wholesale and retail value. In between the two is the room for the discount marketplace – the traders in Bills of Exchange of old.

97 See chart at www.global-settlement.org/times/the-fake-oil-crisis

98 One Gold Global is defined as 0.1 gram of 0.999 fine gold.

1855 Hook up these ‘currencies’ that are redeemable for God’s substance to the trading software in use for currencies and we are ready to go. That software too, a ‘bridge’ is available and is proven in the currency market.

The top dozen commodities and their producers – from being destroyed first by inflation and then by deflation – will become the destroyers of the destroyers – Caesar and Shylock.

1860 The process we have outlined is guaranteed to work by the Laws of Physics and the Law of Christ.

Mobile phones become the natural replacement for credit cards. SMS messages are sufficient to transfer retail payments. Smart phones will become ‘trading platforms’.

1865 The commodity vouchers will perform the function of money: as the tokens backed by petrol are exchanged for petrol, the supplier will know exactly how much to send to which location.

As producers can sell their production forward immediately, they can ‘finance’ their working capital directly from the market. The self-liquidating credit involved is similar to the Bills of Exchange marketplace of old.

The gold that has gone into private hoards will come tumbling out of the closet. Yield will become the watchword in the markets again as the gold chases the stocks of the producers and to operate in the discount marketplace.

The cross ownership of private property via a true stock market results in peace, since there is no urge to destroy the property of ‘others’ because everyone owns and manages for themselves a little bit of everything in private. There is no incentive to steal when all you have to do is collect dividends. The stock market based on deliverable money ensures that the most productive businesses get the most capital.

True stock markets are far more efficient than money markets, because failed projects do not result in additional wasted time, chasing defunct debts.

Letter Rogatory consequences for ‘public policy’

Practically everything the public in the educated First World knows about the world they live in is falsified by the perverse ingenuity of a century of false money and false law.

1885 The culture of complaining, has pervaded the West. Rational thinking – the simple act of taking of ratios<sup>101</sup> and the scientific method – has all but disappeared. When blatant violations of the laws of physics and engineering occur in the ‘media’, there is no one to speak up. Woe unto them who suppress the Truth!

1905 Accept only the Truth

This is a Letter Rogatory to all lower courts – inspired by the contemplation of the neutral Court of Record of the Almighty One – that the tribunal shall take the best course of action in all lower courts, on behalf of plaintiffs, the Children of Our Lord.

1910 A copy of this letter is sent to Her Majesty The Queen and the Bishop of Rome, living lawful Sovereigns, that they may sanctify that in this letter which is good and censure that which is not. We have no dispute with The Sovereign.

The contemplative choices faced by true Sovereigns are not for the faint hearted.

The modes of the English Constitution

1915 The unwritten Constitution we have already described in a preceding section. The Sovereign as a substantial legal entity has Power, Substance and Function.

It is the Function of the entity that has the possibility to be present in part – Her Majesty The Queen, The Lords Spiritual, The Lords Temporal and the House of Commons.

There is no necessity for the substantial Lords Spiritual to sit in Parliament or even go to Church or temple – or for that matter to be in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

1920 Matthew 6:6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

The custom of the Lords Temporal to sit in the House of Lords is a reasonably recent invention in historical time. The Barons of the Realm in the Magna Carta were under no obligation to be present in London.

1925 The House of Commons were the representatives of the freemen of the land, elected by the familiar process that is still in use today.

1930 The ancient traditional mode of Parliamentary Democracy of the English constitution is that the King, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal proposed how the Kingdom shall be governed and it was the duty of the House of Commons to object, to bargain to reduce the tax down to the minimum so that the safety and governance of the Kingdom were achieved. All contracts, including the consent to be governed and taxed, were voluntary.

In this traditional mode, it was the duty of Parliament to ensure that the money of the realm was sound. Parliament itself was an organ of communication with the people in 'distant' counties of the Realm.

1935 By changing the procedure, the unwritten constitution can function as a Monarchy, an Aristocracy or a Democracy – even as a Henry VIII tyrant as it is now, with Parliament operating a formal Caesar.

With this brief introduction, we refer you to The English Constitution by Walter Bagehot, our investigations and open letters and this thesis now before you.

1940 The Henry VIII tyrant – Parliament

When Parliament claimed Sovereignty for itself in 1911, it set itself up as the Henry VIII style tyrant that runs the 'United Kingdom', UK PLC. The 'mind of the tyrant' is the 'Collective Cabinet' split between the ministers of rank Secretary of State.

1945 The Law Lords observed the tyranny. They could not know why it was ongoing. In the 1919 Administration of Justice act, access to jury trial was removed. The traditional independence of the judiciary that requires the tribunal to be independent of the magistrate is maintained by requiring the [tyrant] Minister responsible, of rank Secretary of State to take responsibility and unlimited personal liability for any decisions.

1950 It is our observation that the functional parts thereof operate on a need to know basis. Copies of this Open Letter Rogatory is sent to all Cabinet members and Parliament so that the living souls involved can contemplate with us and act according to their highest conscience.

We come to speak for the voiceless

We came to give voice to the voiceless Children of Our Lord Jesus Christ

– we must start with Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II:

1955 O Tyrant Parliament, why have you gagged your Christian Queen?

O Tyrant Parliament, why is it that money bills are not about money?

Kindly see our first Open Letter to the Prime Minister for a further list of questions which we asked, the answers to which are in this letter.

"You know my methods, Dr. Watson ..."

1960 There is no money

In 1914, the Chancellor of the Exchequer relieved the last endorser on each bill that was brought to the bank. This is so today. The only way to create money is to get two people to agree on the value of something. This is the basis of the Uniform Commercial Code for 'infants', a symbol for wards of the State. The Law Lords have observed thus:

Her Majesties Revenue and Customs Manual confirms that this is a correct statement of the law:

1970 "Where an IOU is involved, you should note the effect of the Bills of Exchange Act 1882/S62 and S89. If the holder of a bill of exchange or of a promissory note either unconditionally renounces their rights in writing, or delivers the instrument to the person liable, this discharges the obligations of the acceptor or promisor, even though no consideration is received. So this is an exception to the rule that a unilateral discharge of a debt requires some form of consideration."

The origin of 'politics'

1975 The term 'politics' refers the process of selecting one or more men or women to operate jointly (in committee or commission) or singly to set 'public policy' which is the administration of the Church which includes those who light their votive candles at the Church of the formal corporate Caesar.

The union of Scotland with England after the collapse of the Darien Scheme in the late 1600s resulted in the Acts of Union 1707 where Great Britain was obliged to Presbyterian Polity. This went ahead despite the wisdom of the day that it does not work.

1980 'Rule by committee' is also called a Commission or Office 'Under The Great Seal' - witness the Collective Cabinet of the UK and the President of the United States - a smoke screen for the Lords Temporal who were driven out of the House of Lords in 1911.

1985 The principal position that has been managed elsewhere is the office of Lord High Treasurer, second only in rank to Her Majesty The Queen, which has been managed for the last 100 years by the Secretary to the Treasury, United States.

1990 England must return to Episcopal Polity, hence by recent actions it has been signified that Scotland is free to go. As this letter proves, The Sovereign is quite happy with the complete unadulterated Freedom of all men and women, including the freedom to be a legal idiot or 'infant'. In the interest of good Fatherly care and administration of all people, Father Francis has said, "we cannot be adolescents forever"<sup>102</sup>.

As we wrote in our Open Letter to Professor Richard Dawkins:

If England is ever 'conquered', it shall not be by force of arms, but by ecclesiastical memes, for England is defended by the Mind of the English people, not just the expression of this Power which is the Royal Navy.

1995 How this might be possible requires one to contemplate the nature of the ecclesiastical memes manifest in our 'parliament', 'courts', 'banks' and 'churches'.

The chief lunatics are those bankrupt corporations masquerading as countries with weapons of mass destruction. They are to be disarmed and dismantled.

The caste system of the West and 'touchability'

2000 The ancient Indians divided the population into four natural categories - those whose chief virtue is that of Mind (Brahman) who were the Priests (Brahmins), those whose chief virtue is Action (Warriors/Kshatrias), those whose chief virtue is skill in production and trade (Vaishyas) and those left with the work of scavenging (disposing waste) and disposing dead bodies (Sudras).

2005 The last category were considered 'untouchable' for they dealt in the unclean products of civilisation. During Indian independence, great efforts were made to remove 'untouchability'.

Witness this fragment of conversation<sup>103</sup> with Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, last Governor General of India:

2010 Rajaji was a staunch supporter of removal of untouchability. At an A. I. C. C. session someone asked him, "Must we touch every scavenger in filthy clothes? Would you do it yourself?" Rajaji replied: "I would not mind touching even you, my friend. But that does not mean that I must stop to touch every scavenger that passes by.”

2015 Today a few generations later in Great Britain, it has been alleged repeatedly in the media, that one cannot get ahead in the formal corporate (dead) government world or initiation in Church without ‘touching’. You can be sure that great efforts will manifest to remove ‘touchability’.

The men of Mind (Priests) and the men of action (Warriors)

2020 There are ancient unalterable truths – the Priest must protect the Warriors from unnecessary war by building bridges of understanding and the Warriors must serve and protect the Priests.

2025 The history of the last century is witness to this – it is true at the level of Countries as it is at the level of individuals. Great Britain continues to protect India and India in turn protects Great Britain. Witness the reasons for the creation of MI6 and what is ongoing in Afghanistan. Witness the contemplative genius of India – Swami Vivekananda to Ramana Maharishi and Paramahansa Yogananda to Paul Brunton and this Letter Rogatory to the Court of Parliament.

This is also true in Europe. Witness the Bishop of Rome, Dunkirk and this letter. Warriors all, take heart. The Men of Mind salute you. The purpose of this letter is to protect you.

2030 Even as Sanjaya (the witness Priest) recounts the Mahābhārata<sup>104</sup> (an epic about a Great War) to Dhritarāshtra (the Blind King), by contemplation of the Five Hundred Year War in Europe, its religion and the Blind Watchmaker, the Selfish Gene and Prisoner’s Dilemma, we bring you this thesis.

2035 A Type 45 destroyer, One in a special form as a floating Rudra<sup>105</sup>, is thrilling because it can track and destroy objects to the edge of space, contemplation is thrilling because it can track reason-principles to the edge of time and destroy trouble before it starts. Religion may not be so boring after all.

The protection you get from the ongoing contemplation of Father Benedict XVI and Father Francis may not appear to be tangible, but it is real and often substantial.

State ‘Public’ Schooling<sup>106</sup> and transmitting Wisdom through Time

2040 Bismark conceived State Public Schooling to destroy the Church. He noted the methods of Ignatius of Loyola - ‘Give me the child and I will give you the man’. With perverse ingenuity the system of State Public Schooling was invented – drill the students, make them look to civil authority for ‘every wee act’. The resulting tragedy was Hitler. Yet we are unconscious of how education has dumbed down society where the tragedy is you cannot get anyone to do anything. It might be shocking but there are plenty of ‘nice people<sup>107</sup>’ in the world (with nice 104 The oldest preserved parts of the text are not thought to be much older than around 400 BCE.

105 Rudra is literally Destroyer in Sanskrit – the god Shiva acting as a destroyer of creation. There is a Sanskrit intercessory prayer of a Sage, the Rudra Chamakam for pacifying Rudra (the LORD or One seen as a man of war and other destructive forces) and invoking instead His protection.

Second Book of Moses, Exodus 15:3 The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name.

106 See www.johntaylorgatto.com/underground/ for detailed information

107 These ‘nice people’ would not hesitate to label the author of this letter as a ‘criminal’ and turn him in to the authorities – as the author does not use a passport to cross borders or apply for residence, he must be evil. In an interview Father Benedict XVI stated that the airport authorities in Germany do not know the Vatican City State is a country with a passport. We know how Father Benedict XVI must feel about it.

A hundred years after the Arthasāstra is translated from Sanskrit found on Palm Leaf Manuscripts by Rudrapatnam Shamasastri of the Oriental Research Institute, Kingdom of Mysore, there is the perfect Monarch who governs the world, whose own people know him not and every principle in that ancient 2045 cars, cell phones and access to the internet) who cannot find Germany or even Europe on a map or who have no idea that World War II occurred.

Even the Roman Catholic Church has a resulting crisis – Latin is a dying language – ancient wisdom may be lost forever. The administrative geniuses of the East India Company, trained in the classics are no more. The Foreign Office has lost its library, we have heard – a tragedy 2050 that shall be reversed. Do some spiritual idiots think that the utopia of William Morris from News from Nowhere is about to manifest?

In engineering we know that retired experts in the design and manufacture of gears, for example, have to be brought back because the next generation is so immersed in computer aided design that they cannot debug the flaws – they have no idea that they could use a wire 2055 brush to examine surfaces for a crack, for example. The English language and its American cousin have been dumbed down by deliberate removal of the functional elements and replaced with its unpacked imperative form. When we started this contemplative project we wondered if there were people left in England who will be able to read what we write – we are frequently asked to explain ourselves ‘in plain English’. The post-911 world of media and 2060 communication is unbelievable. We leave you with a startling proposition, some forms of English are more powerful than others, a restatement of the ‘blub paradox’.<sup>108</sup>

O people of Almighty God – save your children, take them out of State Public School.

Public Health, ‘free health care’ and degeneration of ‘morality’.

Practically everything you know about food and health is full of disinformation. The body 2065 of man is not a car – taking it for an oil change and health check up is not a substitute for becoming conscious of what you eat and how it was grown.

We refer you to the Cheshire Testament<sup>109</sup> on the importance of raw food, soil health and full cycle of waste degeneration by the fungi and bacteria. The ‘Organic’ fad does not capture what is necessary. Raw food is essential to health. Raw milk gives and protects life. A 2070 container of raw milk left at room temperature in the tropics will turn into yoghurt with cream on top, a bottle of pasteurised milk in the same conditions putrefies and rots.

Among the Dead Sea Scrolls is a testament ‘Essene Gospel of Peace<sup>110</sup>’ attributed to Jesus Christ that opens the door to life and health.

We refer you to mises.org for the economic consequence of free health care: all the 2075 unhealthy who receive free health care are dead. When the doctor gets the same pay regardless of outcome, people die. Witness Hitler and the culling of the ‘mentally disabled’. Think this cannot happen in England? We are sure that it is and even have evidence in our little circle of the methods in use. The best minds in England before World War II thought that the idea of a National Health Service was a terrible idea. Some truths are unalterable.

2080 How do you know that some Malthusian genius idiot<sup>111</sup> did not produce your vaccine?

The false environmentalism, notably the madness around carbon dioxide and carbon credits is a symptom of the rule of idiots and lunatics. The more dangerous Malthusian idiots believe that it would be a good thing to exterminate 90% of the people – except them of course – this is the curse of materialism – if the west does not adopt spirituality of the basis of

A summary of our Open Letters touching the salient points

2090 The import of this letter regards the scope and extent of the unwritten constitution is that there are no Westphalian borders. The ‘tyranny’ of the East India Company which has been the subject of debate in Parliament pales before the scope of the matter in front of us.

In our letter to the Prime Minister on 27th January 2011 we wrote:

2095 I am aware that the position of Prime Minister does not come with a nice manual that explains, among other things, the nature of international corporate sovereignty and of the long range planning of financial war. ...

This court has mounted an enquiry into the establishment of international trafficking in persons as an 'acceptable' method of bonding the men and women on the land and trading these instruments, starting with the birth certificate, as taxable futures. ...

2100 *I am also aware that it seems entirely likely that the original trust that was the United States of America<sup>112</sup> was replaced by a corporation after being bankrupted by the civil war. By deductive reasoning such a charter must have been granted by an outside power. Can you confirm if this charter was granted by the King of England? If so, is the United States operating a vanquished nation?

2105 *It seems entirely possible that the rest of the true history of the world since then is not taught in universities except for the gory bits.

*The practical import of the two greatest crimes against humanity is that the war zone is sealed with the iron chains of passports and fraudulent funds.

2110 It is my view that the consequence of the crime of trafficking in persons is that the goodly passport agent at Heathrow is by default, no better than a guard at Auschwitz.

We also raised a number of questions which we are sure you will recognize has affected the Prime Minister and his conduct:

Questions for the Prime Minister of England, Scotland and Wales

2115 *As the Prime Minister I am sure that you are asked a lot of difficult questions. The following questions are now worthy of your investigation. By asking these questions we do not mean to be confrontational, rather we feel sure that these questions will assist you in your courageous efforts to deal with the banking crisis.

2120 *1. Are you the Prime Minister of England, Scotland and Wales representing the men and women on the land known as England, Scotland and Wales or indeed an executive of a corporation known as the UNITED KINGDOM?

*2. Is the UNITED KINGDOM at war or vanquished? If the UNITED KINGDOM is at war, with whom? If the UNITED KINGDOM is vanquished, by whom? If UNITED KINGDOM is at peace why is it trading in units of circular fraud commonly known as the Pound?

2125 3. Who owns the shares of the UNITED KINGDOM and more importantly, who has granted the charter of the UNITED KINGDOM corporation and these corporations acting as the government agencies and instrumentalities such as the banks?

112 See: www.rayservers.com/blog/the-us-con

- 2130 4. What are the rights and fiduciary responsibilities of the officers, shareholders and of the grantor of the charter of such corporations?
5. How does the Mixed Money Case of 1604 and other precedent for financial war apply to this situation?
6. Who can claim to represent the people<sup>113</sup>?
7. Who can claim to enforce the Common Law of England? Is a Police Officer an instrumentality of the UNITED KINGDOM corporation? Has such an officer been bamboozled into enforcement of private corporate rules rather than the common law? Are the courts of the country that accept payment for their services in unlawful money, courts of common law? Is the military of the United Kingdom under the authority of the People of England, Scotland and Wales and Her Majesty The Queen, per se?
- 2135 8. Are the so-called money bills that avoid examination by the House of Lords about lawful money?
9. Have the members of the House of Lords and the House of Commons failed in their duty to prevent such decay in the state of affairs, to the point where the Lords and Members of Parliament have lost their sovereignty and have become corporate vassals created and managed by an outside power?
- 2140 10. By the operation of the law of voids are recent acts of the House of Commons void on their face and thus have no binding force upon the People of England, Scotland and Wales?
11. In the light of the above, is there a pending crisis regarding the oath of the next Monarch?
- 2145 Can Her Majesty and the government you represent confirm Her Majesty's oath to uphold common law and the Magna Carta? ...
1. Did the former Prime Minister Gordon Brown commit treason by the sale of 400 tonnes of gold and holding void-contract foreign currencies?
  2. Has this effectively put UNITED KINGDOM under a foreign power?

2150 We have written to the then Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Williams of Oystermouth, and the Lord High Chancellor Kenneth Clarke, both of whom since resigned. The open letters are published on our web site.

On 11 February 2013, we wrote to the Deputy Prime Minister of the United Kingdom and Lord President of the Council with special responsibility for political and constitutional reform, the Right Honourable Nicholas Clegg regarding the unwritten constitution:

2155 The unwritten and written English Constitution

This letter could be deemed complete at the previous paragraph, yet I do believe leaving an implicit, 'you know my methods, Dr. Watson', may prove a bit cruel – you are sure to run into the Official Secrets Act and get scared out of your mind by the the boys in the back room regarding how 'the world might blow up'.

2160 England, Wales and Scotland are Christian countries with an 'unwritten' constitution where a forthright King and his people agree on the laws they live by – the 'written' part, so there would be little room for doubt – a government by consent.

*The English Constitution<sup>114</sup> by Walter Bagehot, describes how the constitution adapts to the changing circumstances – with great speed, if that be required. England has, over the last millennia, a rather remarkable run of the 'Rule of Law' and avoided the kinds of revolutions they have in France.

2165 *The current 'English Constitution', then, must be working quite nicely. Yet you find yourself with a job description that says that you have 'special responsibility for political and constitutional reform'. Perhaps what is meant, is that you must become Sherlock Holmes, discover how England and the rest of the world work and assist the written part to catch up with the unwritten part.

113 I have seen it said that the failure of the people to object to their loss of ability to pay their debts at law constitutes acceptance of the current sordid state of affairs. It would seem then, that every one of the so-called representative of the people have committed treason by the simple fact of not objecting.

114 www.global-settlement.org/pub/The%20English%20Constitution%20-%20by%20Walter%20Bagehot.pdf

2170 As you may know from 'Yes Prime Minister', 'politics is about surviving until Friday afternoon whilst diplomacy is about surviving until the next century'. We might add, Sovereignty is about surviving until the next millennium. The unwritten constitution therefore functions with or without the assistance of politicians or Civil Servants, transcends national borders and centuries of time. ...

2175 The best politician to get something done is to get one who believes he is crusading for a worthy cause, better still one who thinks he invented the cause himself and that he got democratically elected<sup>115</sup> to do it. They can then be used to send corrective messages to their political opponents especially if they are nursing a popular grievance<sup>116</sup>. Putting more than one man in charge of a function can result in tyranny. See Adolf Hitler, his government and associated symbols<sup>117</sup>.

2180 We are pleased to note that the Deputy Prime Minister took Prime Minister's Questions recently. This present thesis completes that act of communication of this Court of Record to Parliament, the members of which have been continuously increasing their privileges since the 1770 Parliamentary Privileges Act. The 1770 Parliamentary Privileges Act specifies that such abuse of privilege must be challenged in a Court of Record.

2185 Parliament has to consider the possibility that all Acts of Parliament going back to 1770 are void and that the Kingdom and the world would roll back to the Christian liberty that is the Magna Carta 1215. Life will become far simpler – no taxes, no borders, a prosperous world free of fraud, war, false information ... a world with an abundance of life and peace.

Colour of Law Fraud in the Lower Courts

2190 The Lower Courts refer to all Courts where Administrative Law is practised – these include Her Majesty's Courts, all courts of the United States, United Nations and the European Union. The colour of law fraud is exemplified by the actions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, a private corporation masquerading as a Sovereign Tax Authority. What is true of the IRS is also true of the Town Councils in the 'United Kingdom'.

From William Thornton of 1215.org (1215 being the year the Magna Carta was signed)

2195 Colour of Law fraud by the Internal Revenue Service, United States

Subject: Re: The law requires citizens to pay Income Tax

2200 Although I can show you the law, just showing you the law is not sufficient. You must understand the system that produces that law. Below you will find a brief outline of that system and how it leads to a law requiring one to do whatever the IRS wishes.

It's actually very simple. The information here is described in much greater detail at <http://www.1215.org/lawnotes/lawnotes/foundation.htm>

2205 The underlined links provide more information.

Here's the chain of logic:

In the USA there are two systems of law: Roman Civil Law and Common Law. Roman civil law is the law of the legislature. Common law is the law of the people.

2210 Attorneys are well trained in Roman civil law, but they have near-zero training in common law.

However, the common law trumps Roman civil law. Even the Supreme Court of the USA may not second guess a decision of the common law.

115 When you complete your research you will understand why Tony Blair did not become the Great Leader.

116 See Economic Consequences of the Peace by Lord Maynard Keynes available at: www.gutenberg.org/files/15776/15776-h/15776-h.htm

117 www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b0074kmy – Nazis: A warning from history.

2215 A court is defined as "the person and suit of the sovereign." That means that the plaintiff is the sovereign and owner of the court. In any action at law, legally speaking, the plaintiff is the king and retains all powers for himself, including the power to make court judgments. A judge of a court only has those powers which are delegated to him by the plaintiff king.

"The very meaning of 'sovereignty' is that the decree of the sovereign makes law."

A court of record is the only fully empowered [superior] court in America. All other courts are inferior courts.

2220 Ask any attorney and he will explain that a court of record is a court that keeps a record of the proceedings and has the power to fine or imprison for contempt. That's only half the story. The rest of the story is that it is a court that proceeds according to the common law (no statutes), and the tribunal (the one doing the judging) is independent of the magistrate (the judge). Notice that in a court of record the judge is not allowed to do any judging; judging is reserved to the tribunal. In a court of record there are only two entities that are true tribunals: the sovereign of the court (the plaintiff), and the jury (if present). Several times I have fined judges for contempt of court when they refused to obey the law of the court.

The IRS strategy is simple.

2230 The IRS opens a court of record. In the accusatory papers the sovereign accuser decrees the law: "Defendant is required to file." Right there, believe it or not, is the sovereign decree that creates the law in accordance with the rules of the common law.

Defendants are famous for demanding that the law be shown to them. The "law" is contained in the accusatory papers, decreed by the sovereign plaintiff.

2235 The defendants do not recognize the law when they are looking straight at it. Because defendants don't see it, their entire strategy is not relevant to the accusation. A perfect example of this was in the Dick Simkanin case.

Defendants are correct when they claim that there is no statutory requirement to file. But, that is not the question before the court. The real question is, "Did you, or did you not, file your papers as required by the common law decree of the sovereign plaintiff in this court of record?"

The defending strategy is equally simple.

2240 The proper tactic is to do a counterclaim which challenges jurisdiction. Just as in football, the best defence is a good offence. It is in the counterclaim that the legitimacy of the plaintiff's sovereignty may and should be challenged, because no government entity in the USA has sovereignty. The defendant becomes the sovereign counter-plaintiff, and the plaintiff becomes the questionable counter-defendant. Because no sovereign can legislate against any other sovereign, it follows that the counter-defendant has no legitimate authority to decree any law applicable to the counter-plaintiff.

2245 That is a broad-brush explanation. There is a lot more detail involved which I will be happy to give you, if you are interested. At the web site there are three 8-hour lectures that go into great detail. The most relevant one is at <http://www.1215.org/lawnotes/lawnotes/lectures/sovereignty/index.html>

2250 Perhaps we could talk on the phone. If we do, I suggest that you record the conversation for your future reference. The best times for me are after 7PM PST, Monday thru Friday, and any time Saturday & Sunday. During those times I can call you back at no cost to either one of us.

Bill Thornton

2255 This is exactly what the Town Councils do for Council Tax and for collecting fines. Her Majesty's Courts cannot legally issue a Court Order without the signature of a tyrant minister – so they do not. The Councils, not Her Majesty's Courts, issue a Notice of Court Order (a notice is not signed and sealed as in a proper court order. Her Majesty's Courts never have issued such an order in all Council Tax and Administrative 'cases', because they can not do so except by treason – and thank your lucky stars, England is a Christian Monarchy, not a Republic). A computerised Distress Warrant of unknown provenance is issued to ignorant Private Bailiffs who levy distress – the UK PLC features intimidate and steal the corporate vehicle justice.

2260 All fines issued by the British Police are requisitions – requests for supplies from the ## occupying army of the tyrant Henry VIII Parliament.

2265 All Administrative Courts, especially in the formal republics like the United States, are engaged in creating Bills of Exchange to trade the trust account created by the formal Caesar on the Birth Certificate. Any sane living man can ask for the charging papers, sign below the NAME of the corporate fiction as “accepted for value” and walk out of the Administrative Court. The Court process is basically asking “this is the value of this Administrative Statute, do you agree”. Innocence or guilt is just a distraction to convince the ‘canned Roman jury’ of 2270 ‘guilt’ so the charging papers are signed by them. The trust account funds which are traded then pay for a meagre existence of the living prisoner and a luxurious existence for Caesar’s minions and the private owner of the prison.

Vast prison populations of ignorant people are maintained in prison as collateral in the United States because the Court System there gets to trade the trust account money<sup>118</sup>.

2275 The United States courts are under the United Nations – witness the oath of its officers. This is the start of a longer explanation of how Europe and the United States have been maintained by trust fund trading since the 2008 crisis.

“Intellectual Property” and schemes of artificial scarcity

2280 You live in a mental world-idea, in principle there is no difference between God’s thought and a human thought. The difference is one of degree of objective manifestation and ability of another human to copy the thought.

2285 This is the secret to the law of miracles. Our Lord Jesus Christ had merged His mind with the Mind of One, Almighty God and so could heal the severed ear, multiply the food and so on. What a human can imagine, Our Lord Jesus Christ can manifest – even today, for space-time is but an idea in Mind, and the World-Mind knows the principle of Christ and an sincere invocation to His name by one who have purified his mind by contemplation and devotion.

2290 Even so, Our Father in Heaven (the Intellectual-Principle of Man in One) maintains the presence of saints who perform miracles on Earth, lest we forget. Just because a ‘scientist’ has failed to penetrate the ‘trick’ – which is introspective contemplation, the scientist scoffs the saint and continues to suffer in the prison of his Shelly-like body. Introspective contemplation cannot be seen by putting the saint in a CAT scan machine – all that is witnessed is some ‘calm’ alpha brain waves. There are evil geniuses who have mastered the ability to alter these patterns from a distance as a weapon of war – witness the TV personalities who were talking in tongues in the middle of a show.

2295 A human mind is made in the image of God’s mind – it too can hear an idea, revivify it in the imagination and lo, there is another living copy – this is the insight of Professor Richard Dawkin’s meme. He accurately foresaw computer viruses and file sharing, for as soon as there is an environment where representation of ideas can reproduce themselves, they will.

2300 Life as we know it, the self-reproducing ideas in the mind of God, encoded with genes, is our nourishment itself. So too are ideas that circulate through word or symbol from one human mind to another and nourishes it.

This author owes a debt of gratitude to many people unknown, without whose freely posted information much of the research would have been impossible.

2305 In New York State a scheme was launched to bolster the ‘price of milk’. Herds of milk cattle were purchased by the State and slaughtered and the farmer given a lump sum to not go back into business for a few years – our witness is a milk truck driver who was out of his job and reduced to hauling trash in his family pick-up truck. This is in addition to Caesar’s rule that it is illegal to transport milk across state borders. This evil behaviour is no better than Caesar’s monopolies granted for the production of goods (patents) and ideas (copyright).

2310 With liberty, comes property rights which include the right to multiple life and trade it. The corn growing in my field is mine – this is none of anyone else’s business. The dancing electrons on my computer are mine – they are none of anyone else’s business. You cross that property line and ‘accidentally’ infest my crop with genetic material that generates poisons or sterility – I’ll shoot you, says Rudra, for the LORD is a Man of War (Exodus 15:3). That is a visual metaphor that some people are going to learn – most likely literally, for:

*Wise men are instructed by reason;
Men of less understanding, by experience;
The most ignorant, by necessity;
The beasts by nature.*

2320 - Letters to Atticus, Marcus Tullius Cicero

Matthew 26:52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

2325 There is wisdom in the words of Jesus Christ, but men of less understanding experience the fruits of their actions as it happened in Europe in the last century. If you have lived by the sword of Caesar ... learn from the wisdom of Zacchaeus, the tax collector. Repent, make restitution and seek the mercy of the LORD.

Luke 19:8 And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord: Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

2330 19:9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

19:10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

The Julian Assange case

The Julian Assange case features a number of notable features. The Rule of Law is signified by the flag of the formal Caesar where Julian has taken refuge – the Eagle.

2335 The hidden Dark Lords of Finance who wanted to kidnap him have been thwarted. This Court of Record had a small but perhaps not insignificant role to play:

2340 An anonymous member of Julian Assange’s legal team contacted one of the members of our Court on Friday the 2nd of December 2011 via an Off The Record encrypted channel. He or she is convinced on that day that there is no hope for Julian Assange at the hearing on the following Monday, especially concerning the Attorney-General of the United Kingdom who was expected to sign the deportation authorization.

Our letter of 29th November 2011 to the Mr. Dominic Grieve, Esq, QC, MP, Attorney General's Office and the accompanying attachments are now published<sup>119</sup> on the web.

2345 The Attorney-General failed to sign the extradition papers at the trial at Her Majesty’s Courts and the ‘authorities’ have been unable to arrest him to date. Julian Assange has appeared on several TV shows on Russia Today.

Transmutation of Caesar into Saint Peter

2350      Too long have we lived where Saint Paul Prosper by the secret Power of Saint Peter
Where Captive in his Own Castle
            Saint Peter's Power goes forth as Caesar

            We light Bagehot's fire<sup>120</sup> of transmutation of Caesar into Saint Peter

2355      A match that shall become the fire that shall consume the forest of Caesar's statutes
And restore a Christian Kingdom in our green and pleasant land

2360      A mosquito does not fear man's nets
Charlotte the living Spider would be better<sup>121</sup> than a net for She is alive and intelligent and She weaves her net better

            The infestation of parasites clogs blood stasis each creature there must die:

2365      There is the Vampire of the Internal Revenue Service the Mosquito of Monsanto the Mite of various copyright creatures that lay their eggs under your skin and the fungi that are countless Caesar's minions

2370      who cause the wound to fester

            And the 'parasites' once their dead identities die
            Shall see themselves as Children of Our Lord
The Children of Our Lord are to be set free from the bonds that shackle them

2375      The dead identities to be consumed in the forest fire of Caesar's Statutes

            A debt jubilee shall be declared
            no rent or mortgage to pay

2380      The righteous are to get their money as the energy which is life power
They shall travel without passport
            They shall trade without a licence
They shall sing and multiply the ideas of food, fresh, raw, from Mother nature

2385      and music and wisdom for the soul
They shall trade these with each other by Saint Peter's Church marketplace

            And soon their pockets shall have the substance of God

2390      The Freedom of the City - restored

            The Church shall be universal and people free to worship in any form

            Our Lord and Master One Christ, Our Father in Heaven is the protector of all men and women, big and small

If the Home Secretary is unable to provide the bond out of her personal funds, a Temporal Lord of the Realm may do so provided his or her identity is disclosed and on the public record.

2410 The Court of Parliament by this Writ of Mandamus is also directed specifically to release the lady juror who was convicted and incarcerated<sup>122</sup> for investigating the Truth by the High Court and pay compensation in substantial money for obstruction of justice from the pay of the magistrates involved. It is scandalous before Almighty God that the High Court prevents men and women in a Common Law jury from discovering the Truth in a Star Chamber.

2450 The Court of Parliament is directed by this Writ of Mandamus to reform Public/State Schooling. The Court of Parliament is directed to give asylum and sanctuary to all families fleeing<sup>124</sup> compulsory State Public Schooling until Peace (sound money and open borders) is proclaimed across the world. All judgements of all lower administrative courts in this matter in favour of Caesar are hereby annulled with prejudice. The Court of Parliament is to communicate this to all such affected families with due haste.

2455 The Court of Parliament is directed by this Writ of Mandamus to take steps right and proper for the formal United Kingdom PLC and all corporate nations to get out of the business of arranging marriage licenses which unite two individuals with a Corporate Caesar to obtain more foundlings for human trafficking by Birth Certificates. It shall be illegal for any entity to forbid a farmer from saving his own seed.

Writ to Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God

2465 The Court of Parliament shall by this Writ to Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God, direct the Prime Minister to establish an Office of Redemption to assist the Global Settlement Foundation with the process initiated by Pope Benedict XVI at the Lourdes in France in 2008 and again in his Christmas message of 2012.

2480 The Court of Parliament shall direct the Foreign Secretary to prepare for the consequent invitation of British investors, administrators, companies and so forth to countries that invite such attention to upgrade their corrupt administrations. We pray to One Christ, Our Father in Heaven to activate the tremendous store of goodwill that Great Britain has in the Commonwealth of Her Majesty The Queen. We know from our research that the current 2485 generations in India, for example, would gladly welcome the British back – not as rulers but as traders and administrators of lawful money and the Common Law. Great Britain has a tremendous reserve of a diverse immigrant population that are sure to use the opportunity to foster trade with the motherland of their ancestors. This includes practically every place on Earth.

2490 The Court of Parliament shall investigate the 'board and scuttle' operation of Caesar where coastal fisherman are arrested or shot and their boats scuttled and sunk, for example, by the U.S. Coast Guard and the Italian Navy<sup>125</sup>. The Court of Parliament shall declare the seas safe for the Children of Our Lord as soon as possible.

The Court of Parliament shall investigate the the Fukushima disaster and all other 2495 'manufactured crisis'<sup>126</sup> that have been inflicted upon the Children of our Lord.

The Court of Parliament shall direct the Prime Minister to immediately free Her Majesty's most loyal Ghurkas to come and go as they wish as one of Her Majesty's subjects.

The Court of Parliament shall direct the Prime Minister to advise all parties about the Flag and Seal of this Court of Record and of its use to identify ships or other methods of movement

The Court of Parliament shall direct the Prime Minister to prepare for sessions of Her Majesty the Queen in Parliament to restore the Rule of Law by Acts of Her Majesty The Queen in Parliament Agreed on.

2505 The Court of Parliament shall send the relevant Secretaries of State together with the Prime Minister and Deputy Prime Minister to accompany Her Majesty The Queen to Rome so that the Bishop of Rome may sanctify and signify the grace of Saint Peter for the Debt Jubilee.

Alternatively should this be the wish of Her Majesty The Queen, the Court of Parliament shall dissolve Parliament and await the outcome of Her Majesty The Queen's 2510 visit to The Bishop of Rome.

In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ and His Apostle Saint Peter we pray that it is the will of Almighty God that this Debt Jubilee be granted for the 15th of August 2013, one thousand seven hundred years after the Peace of the Church.

Grant of Power

2515 Power is hereby granted until the Debt Jubilee by this contemplative Court of Record of the Sovereign Almighty One Christ, Our Father in Heaven to the House of Commons and the House of Lords in Westminster to function in their substantial, non-corporate capacity as the Court of Her Majesty's Commonwealth of Nations upon producing One British Sovereign, lawful coin of the realm of Her Majesty The Queen, held in trust by any one member for this 2520 Court of Record.

2525 Overcoming the negative mental states

In the Dhammapada<sup>127</sup> of Buddha, we can find in simple language that confirms the teachings of Christ, that by holding on to That Mind which precedes all mental states, we can choose Christ over Caesar and Shylock – and overcome the negative mental states<sup>128</sup> that arise from the contemplation of history and ought-to-be thinking:

- 2530 1. Mind precedes all mental states.
Mind is their chief; they are all mind-wrought.
If with an impure mind a person speaks or acts suffering follows him like the wheel that follows the foot of the ox.
- 2535 2. Mind precedes all mental states.
Mind is their chief; they are all mind-wrought.
If with a pure mind a person speaks or acts happiness follows him like his never-departing shadow.
- 2540 3. “He abused me, he struck me, he overpowered me, he robbed me.”
Those who harbour such thoughts do not still their hatred.
4. “He abused me, he struck me, he overpowered me, he robbed me.”
Those who do not harbour such thoughts still their hatred.
- 2545 5. Hatred is never appeased by hatred in this world.
By non-hatred alone is hatred appeased.
This is a law eternal.

The Thousands

- 2550 1. Better than a thousand useless words
is one useful word,
hearing which one attains peace.
2. Better than a thousand useless verses
is one useful verse,
hearing which one attains peace.
- 2555 3. Better than reciting a hundred meaningless verses is the reciting of one verse of Dhamma,
hearing which one attains peace.
- 2560 4. Though one may conquer a thousand times
a thousand men in battle, yet he indeed is the noblest victor
who conquers himself.

Declaration of Express Trust

2565 I, a living man, a man of letters known as Joseph Ray Sundarsson, do hereby create, found, ordain and establish THE ENGLISH TRUST under the Global Settlement Foundation. I hereby settle the trust with One British Sovereign for the purpose of “Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God”, as Pope Benedict XVI preached for the benefit of all the Children of Our Lord.

In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ we pray

May Our Lord Jesus Christ and His Apostle Saint Peter have mercy on this universal Christian kingdom of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Queen of the Commonwealth of Nations.

2575 In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ and His Apostle Saint Peter we pray that the Court of Parliament have the mercy of Our Lord Jesus Christ as its first principle, equality before the Christian Common Law declared by One Christ, Our Father in Heaven.

2580 In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ and His Apostle Saint Peter we pray that there be a world debt jubilee and a return to substantial money for all the Children of Our Lord without distinction of people and nations under the protection and guidance of Her Majesty The Queen, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of the Realm and the Bishop of Rome.

I have examined my conscience before Almighty God and with full freedom and liberty, on behalf of our plaintiffs the Children of Our Lord, I have set my hand on this 28th day of May, in the year 2013 of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

2585 By these words I have uttered, I wash the feet of Her Majesty The Queen, Father Benedict XVI, Father Francis, The Bishop of Rome and all the Children of Our Lord.

The founding principles and current effects

The USA mind map explores how the competition of ideas between the English King and the Papacy in Rome has, over the course of some centuries, shaped the history of the United States of America (a legal fiction). "Jesuitical Exegesis" is the use of language designed to appear to mean one thing, but in reality means something else. Normal people discuss personalities (Vote Ron Paul!), the thinking man discusses events (Euro collapse!), the wise see competition between and evolution of ideas (memes) in the minds of men.

Property, wrote David Hume, arises in the relationship of the object with the mind of a rational man or woman. In the old days, you could run away from Europe. Today, you cannot run away from Ideas. The shadow of the Roman soldier who killed Archimedes as he was thinking, scribbling in the sand, is upon you. In contrast, see diagram of how a free people's liberties result in the entire system of contracts (available at www.courtrecord.org.uk).
